Woman, 79, Rides To Death In Car On Wolfe Grade

28th Marin Road Fatality In 1963; 22 This Time In '62

Mary Catherine Lawton, 79-year-old secretary who lived alone, rode to her death alone Saturday on Wolfe Grade.

Miss Lawton was fatally injured about 3:10 p. m. when her car failed to make a downhill curve and smashed into the bank. She died at 5:45 p.m. in Marin General Hospital—of "multiple traumatic injuries," reported Coroner Frank J. Keaton.

Her death was the 28th in Marin County traffic this year, compared to 22 last year to this time.

MASS SET

Requiem Mass will be offered at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday at the Church of the Nativity in San Francisco. Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Carew and English Funeral Chapel in San Franicsco.

Miss Lawton had lived alone on Escalle Terrace, Larkspur, since the death of her brother, Robert W. Lawton, two years ago. She previously lived with her brother in the home built for him and his wife about 20 years ago. Before that, she made her home in San Francisco, where she was born.

She had long outlived her employer, D. M. Coghlan, San Francisco realty broker, but continued to work part-time in the office he established. She also did part-time secretarial work for other firms.

DOG NOT THERE

Her constant companion was a female German shepherd dog, Topper. "She never went anywhere without the dog," said her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harry J. Lawton of Oakland. "Topper was a wonderful watchdog."

Topper was not with Miss Lawton on the fatal ride, however. She had been placed in care of a veterinarian a few days earlier.

Highway Patrolmen Daniel Sully and James Cahill reported Miss Lawton's car was about one-third mile above Sir Francis Drake Boulevard when it failed to make the curve and hit the bank. They said witnesses reported it straightened out after hitting the bank once, then veered and smashed again.

Miss Lawton was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church of Larkspur.

She is survived by her brother in Oakland, four nephews and two nieces.

Lost Girl Is Found Unharmed

A 30-month-old girl was found in the darkness last night, unharmed in a dry creek bed, about two and one-half hours after she wandered away from her playmates at the Arnold Dolcini Jr. ranch on the Petaluma-Point Reyes road.

The girl, Barbara Dolcini, daughter of Peter C. Dolcini of Stockton, was found at about 7 p.m. by Marin County Fireman Clarence Nunes and Virgil Howard, a Dolcini ranch employee, who heard her crying.

They were among a score of neighbors, county firemen and sheriffs' officers who had joined the search.

Members of the family noticed Barbara was missing when they were preparing to leave for Stockton at 4:30 p.m.

After an early search failed, the county fire department and sheriff's office were called. Special Deputy Michael McLean was called in, but did not have to use his bloodhounds.

Barbara was found about a quarter mile from where she had last been seen.

Mrs. Dolcini said Barbara might have taken a nap while the search was on and then started to cry when she awoke in the darkness.

Mrs Dolcini expressed appreciation to the firemen, deputies and employees of the Spaletta and Barboni ranches for their "kindness, warmth and interest."

Barbara is niece of Arnold Dolcini Jr., president of the Marin County Board of Education.

San Rafael Elks Move Home To Boyd Mansion

In its first move since 1908, the San Rafael Elks Lodge started transferring its furnishings and equipment to a new home today.

Moving men began loading vans at Fifth Avenue and B Street early this morning and shuttling them to Maple Lawn, the historic Boyd mansion on Mission Avenue near C Street, San Rafael. The move was expected to go on all day today and tomorrow.

The San Rafael Elks Lodge voted to accept Miss Louise A. Boyd's offer to sell the historic mansion and 10.56 acres of landscaped grounds last November. The property had been in the Boyd family since the early 1880s.

The purchase was approved by the Elks Grand Lodge at $355,000.

Dale Blanton, coordinator for the club, said many of the rooms at Maple Lawn have already been remodeled, and the interior has been fully repainted. However, other work is contemplated and may not be completed for another year.

During the move today and tomorrow and also on Wednesday and Thursday the club will be closed to members. It will be officially reopened at Maple Lawn on Friday at noon with a ribbon cutting ceremony by exalted ruler A. Clyde Jones and chairman of trustees Robert E. Rich.

The Elks Lodge moved to the Fifth Avenue and B Street property in 1908, occupying an old house. The front was rebuilt in 1915.

This property was purchased by the Bank of Marin last March. The bank is expected soon to begin razing the building preparatory to new construction which will require about a year.

The next preliminary interviews will be given to one candidate at 8 p.m. Thursday and another at 9:30 a.m. Saturday. Interviews are being conducted to fill the position of City Mgr. A. E. Almcrants, who resigned Oct. 21 effective no sooner than Dec. 31.

Sprinkles Offer Little Relief From Drought

CHICAGO (AP) — Occasional light rain sprinkled parts of New England today where scores of woodland fires are burning, but no widespread break was in sight for the drought-plagued eastern half of the country.

The coldest weather of the season pushed southward through the northern half of the country, but set off only widely scattered light showers in the bone-dry air.

Firemen Rescue Boy After Fall Down Hill

Larkspur firemen rescued Michael Mitchell, 11, of 107 Holcomb Avenue, after he slipped and tumbled 30 feet down a hill he was climbing above the Hillview Gardens subdivision about 4:28 p.m. yesterday.

The boy was taken by Marin Ambulance to Marin General Hospital and treated for cuts on his left leg and right side.

Dishwasher's Hand Caught In Grinder

A Larkspur volunteer fireman had to take a meat grinder apart yesterday to free the hand of its feeder.

Billie Jo Miller, 16, of 1593 Redwood Highway, Corte Madera, a dishwasher at Zim's Restaurant in the Corte Madera Shopping Center, caught his left hand in the grinder during his work at 12:45 p.m.

Police and firemen were called. Volunteer fireman Carl Brown solved the problem by dismantling the meat grinder. At Marin General Hospital, however, it was found necessary to amputate the tip of the third finger of the mangled hand.

'Scatterbrained' Strike Ties Up Work At Quentin

About 4,000 San Quentin Prison inmates were prevented from going to work today by 40 or 50 convicts who staged a strike in the main yard of the prison.

The striking convicts formed a picket line and booed inmates leaving for their jobs at 7:30 a.m. The pickets were strung out across the gate leading from the main yard.

No inmate crossed the picket line, but there was no violence, according to Associate Warden Walter D. Achuff.

Achuff said the strike was "a scatterbrained type of thing with no organization to it." He said it was formed in sympathy with Folsom Prison inmates who last Monday refused to go to their jobs, demanding more pay and shorter terms.

Prison officials had heard rumors during the last week of the pending strike at San Quentin and were prepared.

When inmates refused to cross the picket line and go to work, an announcement was made on the public address system that there would be a "voluntary lockup."

CELLS LOCKED

The cells are locked when the inmates go to work, to prevent burglaries. Inmates returned to the cells, were locked in and guards started going from cell to cell to give inmates the opportunity of returning to work on an individual basis.

By 9:30 a.m. a "trickle of men" had left their cells for work. By 10 a.m. about 15 per cent of the prison's population had left their cells. By 11 a.m. 30 per ment of the inmates were back at work.

Achuff said some of the inmates had refused to go back to work. However, most of these were holding back to see what other inmates were going to do, he said.

He estimated that by late afternoon, most of the convicts would be back at their jobs.

AUTHORITY MEETING

The job of canvassing each cell was slowed down because individual men had to be taken out of their cells to appear before the Adult Authority, which was meeting at the prison today.

Achuff said no inmate with an appointment to appear before the Adult Authority had refused to leave his cell. The strike apparently bore no relationship to the Adult Authority meeting, Achuff said.

Inmates living in dormitories on the ranch and working at jobs outside the prison walls were not affected by the strike.

The school, textile, clothing, furniture and 19 vocational and maintenance shops inside the walls were not in operation during the "sit down."

The Folsom strike was broken up Thursday when the ringleaders were transferred to other prisons. San Quentin got 17 of the Folsom prisoners, but

17 Arrested In $1 Million Haul Of Opium

Raw Dope Seized On Ship; Biggest Coast Confiscation

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) Seventeen persons were scheduled to appear today before U. S. Commissioner Donald Constine on smuggling charges following what federal agents called "the biggest confiscation of opium ever made on the West Coast."

U. S. Customs officials said 60 pounds of raw opium was seized yesterday hidden aboard the Norweigan freighter Hoegh Dene and and on the persons of a dozen of the vessel's Chinese crewmen.

The value of the haul was estimated at over 1 million dollars.

In all, sixteen crewmen were arrested along with Ng Poy, an 80-year-old resident of San Francisco's Chinatown who, agents said, was to have been the purchaser of the opium.

Frank Long, chief enforcement agent for the U. S. Customs, led a team of 30 federal agents who, acting on a tip, kept close watch on the Hoegh Dene and crew when the vessel arrived at San Francisco Saturday afternoon.

Saturday evening, Long said, eight crewmen left the ship and walked to Chinatown, but none were arrested.

"We knew that trip was a dry run," Long said.

Yesterday afternoon agents with field glasses and walkie-talkie radios followed 12 crewmen as they made their way separately to an apartment at 730 Jackson Street.

"As soon as the first began to arrive," Long said, "we grabbed the last two and searched them. Both had opium in their possession, so we hit the apartment."

Agents said they found several of the crewmen in the apartment talking with Poy, who has a lengthy record for narcotics arrests. They said Poy was to pay $100 a pound for the opium.

Long said the crewmen had about three pounds of the drug on them and that another 57 pounds was found later aboard the Hoegh Dene. He said all of the 16 Norwegian officers aboard the ship denied any involvement.

Thieves Hit Pharmacies, Medic Office

Burglars broke into two Kentfield pharmacies during the weekend and forced the door of a Kentfield doctor's office, taking a total of $300 in drugs, the sheriff's office reported today.

The burglars drilled holes around the lock of the door at the Redwood Medical Pharmacy, 1125 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield, and took about $175 worth of narcotics, hypnotics and stimulants, according to druggist Norman A. Ashcroft of El Cerrito.

The thieves hacked a hole in the rear of the building, apparently so one man could watch for police.

Burglars also forced the front door of the office of Drs. Jerome O. Kirschbaum and Sherwin U. Miller in the same building, but nothing was reported missing.

In the other burglary, the Woodlands Pharmacy, 739 College Avenue, Kentfield, was broken into, and $120 in narcotics, including leritene, numerphan and morphine were stolen. Owner Henry S. Loeffler om 253 Tulane Drive, Larkspur, said $50 in cash and a $20 watch were also stolen.

Still Full Speed To Land Man On Moon

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's full speed ahead for the U. S. program to land a man on the moon in this decade.

That's the way American space officials greeted yesterday the news from Moscow that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev apparently has pulled his country out of any moon race.

And Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, chairman of the Senate Space committee, agreed.

"First of all, I do not believe we should develop our space programs on the basis of the press statements of Mr. Khrushchev," the New Mexico Democrat said.

However, there were signs elsewhere that the Russian leader's move may provide ammunition for American critics of heavy space spending.

In an interview Saturday night in Moscow with touring journalists, Khrushchev declared:

"At present we are not planning manned moon flights . . .

"I have read a report to the effect that the Americans want to land a man on the moon by 1970. Well, I wish them success. And we shall watch how they fly there, how they come to earth, or rather come to moon, and, this is the main thing, how they take off and return home . . ."

The reaction in Washington was varied.

James E. Webb, administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said Khrushchev's statement "could have the effect of strengthening this country's desire to go ahead with the moon program."

Dr. George E. Mueller, director of NASA's manned spaceflight programs, said the American moon effort should continue independent of any action Russia might take.

President John F. Kennedy in 1961 set as a national goal the landing of a man on the moon in the decade, hopefully before the Russians do. The cost has been estimated at 20 billion dollars or more.

Getting Congress to see things his way has not been easy.

The administration asked 5.7 billion dollars for NASA this fiscal year, most of the money to go into the manned spaceflight program. Congress authorized 5.35 billion dollars.

Noting that such diverse leaders as Nobel Prize winner Linus Pauling and former President Dwight D. Eisenhower have questioned the wisdom of moon spending on the scale now projected, Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen said he expected congressional advocates of reduced spending to step up their arguments on the basis of Khrushchev's remarks.

U.N. Mission Probes As 7th Buddhist Burns

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—The U.N. mission to South Viet Nam discarded its restricted government itinerary today in an attempt to counter the Diem regime's efforts to keep opposition Buddhists from the fact-finders.

The U.N. team anounced it would decide for itself who it will see in its investigation of Buddhist charges of government persecution.

Since its arrival Thursday, the U.N. mission has been briefed by President Ngo Dinh Diem and his powerful brother, Ngo Dinh Nhu, and pro-government Buddhist leaders. The government schedule has given the U.N. investigators almost no opportunity to talk with opposition Buddhist or any opposition political group.

The diplomats decided to break from the tour-like schedule aranged by the government just as another Buddhist monk burned himself to death in front of the Roman Catholic Cathedral yesterday. It was the seventh Buddhist suicide by fire since June, and it was carried out to dramatize the Buddhist charges during the visit of the U.N. team.

Catching government police off guard, the monk arrived by motorcycle, poured gasoline on himself and lit a match. A crowd of about 100 persons gathered around the flaming figure.

Mrs. Nhu Asserts Visit Successful

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)— Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu, who avoided stepping through about 40 sit-down demonstrators when she slipped through a candy store entrance to her hotel last night, says she still considers her cross-country tour of the Unitel States a success.

Before leaving Southern California, Mrs Nhu had a few words on the latest suicidal burning of a Buddhist monk in Saigon.

"It is a crime," she said. "He is trying to reach paradise by doing what he thinks is right on earth."

"If I believed that by burning myself to death I would be doing good," by helping defeat the Communist Viet Cong in Viet Nam "I too would burn myself.'

San Francisco laid on the tightest security cordon in her three week's tour when she arrived from Los Angeles.

In the hotel bar, one police intelligence officer stopped Bruce B. Baxter III, Corpus Christi, Tex., oilman boy friend of Mrs. Nhu's daughter, Le Thuy, who was wearing a nickel-sized plain orange button issued by police to members of the Nhu party and their sponsors. His identity was established and he went on. Mrs. Nhu was scheduled to address the Commonwealth Club, and has been invited to talk to another group at San Francisco's Jack Tar Hotel tonight.

'I have found the American people very human and understanding," she told a newsman.

"I will leave this country with a great feeling of courage."

A 1961 census showed that England and Wales had an average of 790 persons living on each square mile.

Some Troops In Lift Return

FRANKFORT, Germany (UPI) —The United States shipped home 1,500 combat troops on return flights of "Operation Big Lift" planes but kept the movement secret to avoid arousing Europeans' concern, it was learned today.

Big Lift, which brought more than 15,000 combat troops from bases in Texas to Germany for maneuvers, caused fears here that U. S. troops would be cut.

The 1,500-man battle group was being returned to the United States in a normal rotation move.

The big lift rotation move involved the 2nd battle group, 26th infantry, which went back to Fort Riley, Kan. from temporary duty in Germany.

BASILDON, England (UPI) — The Rev. William Winfield, rector of St. Martin's Anglican Church, complained today that police ticketed the cars of wedding guests at his church.

Censorship In S. Viet Nam? No, Just Helping War Effort

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu says there is a "gentlemen's agreement" among South Viet Nam's newspaper publishers to print news which will help the war effort against the Communists. But reports by outsiders that there is censorship are wrong, she says.

"The heads of the papers get together every week to decide what to print to help the war effort," she said en route to San Francisco yesterday.

"But they aren't censored.

"They can print something against the government if they want to and they often do."

She said news stories by foreign correspondents in Saigon which say there is government censorship are "all lies."

Counsel Successor To Be Considered

Appointment of a new county counsel to succeed E. Warren McGuire will be considered by the Marin County Board of Supervisors tomorrow morning.

The meeting begins at 9 a.m. on the third floor of the Civic Center.

County Counsel McGuire last week, announced he is resigning at the end of this year to go into private practice. Asst. County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney, whom McGuire recommends, is the logical successor. The name of Joseph Henneberry, a deputy county clerk, has been submitted for consideration.

Supervisors will consider setting a hearing date for the Tiburon incorporation.

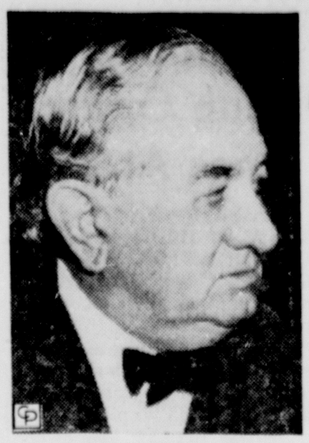

The supervisors morning agenda also includes:

Redwood Empire Assn.'s request to have a supervisor appointed to the REA Supervisors Unit Natural Resources Group.

The auditor's report showing a big drain on the county's unappropriated reserve fund.

Architectural plans for a residential treatment center at juvenile hall.

Public works matters start at 1:30 p.m. These include bids on flood control pumping equipment in Santa Venetia, cleaning of ditches for Terra Linda Community Services District, title reports for poperty acquisition in the Coyote Creek project, altered parking plan at the Civic Center, and news racks at the civic center entrance.

Ex-Sen. Tom Connally Of Texas Dies At 86

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former Sen. Tom Connally of Texas died early today at his home here of pneumonia. He was 86.

Connally's family said he had been ill for some time.

He had been living in retirement here since he left the senate in 1953 with 36 years service.

The silver-haired Texas Democrat was a former chairman of the foreign relations committee.

The veteran "old-school" lawmaker steered most of the nation's major foreign policy laws through the senate during World War II and immediately afterward. In his later years he became increasingly critical of foreign aid.

His chief forensic weapons were humor and ridicule. A skilled politician, whose legislative service carried him to the foreign relations committee chairmanship, he mixed with ambassadors and heads of state, but never lost the vernacular of his native Texas.

Connally headed the U. S. delegation to the charter conference of the United Nations in San Francisco in 1945 and with the late Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg (R-Mich.) led the campaign in the senate to ratify U. N. membership by the United States later in that year.

Clerk Jobs Open

Applications are now being accepted for the federal civil service job of military personnel clerk, $4,565 a year, at Hamilton Air Force Base. Applications are available at the San Rafael Post Office.

El Greco Art Gallery To Open In San Rafael

El Greco Art Gallery will be opened at 933 D Street, San Rafael, on Friday.

The gallery is owned by Walter Dale of 162 Wolf Grade, San Rafael. Dale, a painter, said this is his first commercial venture. He will display the works of various artists, the first of whom will be Victor Horvath, a Budapest-born painter temporarily living in Marin County.

Horvath will have a three-day showing of 35 to 40 of his works. A few of these represent Marin scenes. Some of his paintings will remain on display after the initial showing.

The gallery will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Tuesday through Saturdays, and closed on Sundays and Mondays. Dale said it may remain open on Friday evenings.

Kentfield Girl Is Finalist In Contest

THEY'RE BACK TOGETHER AGAIN

The three portions of what was the Colonel's Ranch Wagon, a roadside restaurant, were side-by-side again today after having been moved separately from Alto to the Mill Valley's Project 17 recreation area. The third section was moved during the weekend. Julius Kobza sights transit on stick held by Terry Cook, fellow employee of Ghilotti Brothers of San Rafael, to get alignment for concrete foundation on which the three-part building will be re-assembled into one part to serve as a community center for Mill Valley.

Hub Chiropractor Wants Abortion Charges Erased

San Anselmo chiropractor Laurence Giubbini, 60, faced with charges of three counts of abortion, two of soliciting abortions and one of conspiracy, asked that all counts be dismissed today in a motion in Contra Costa County Superior Court.

Giubbini, of 228 Crescent Road, was arrested in his Richmond office by Richmond police after two policewomen, acting as undercover agents, went to his office to ask about abortions.

He was indicted by the Contra Costa County Grand Jury Sept. 18 on charges dating back to 1961. Also named was his former partner, Joseph D. Sieff, 51, of San Leandro.

Giubbini is free on $5,250 bail.

Judge Homer W. Patterson set Nov. 12 for hearing arguments on the dismissal request.

Car Crosses Yards, Driver Is Arrested

Bruce Stanley Davis, 24, a carpenter of 110 Wisteria Way, Almonte, was booked into Marin County Jail on suspision of disturbing the peace early today after an accident in Strawberry.

Davis escaped injury when his cars brakes failed and the vehicle tore up two front yards, but he was jailed for his language, reported California Highway Patrolmen and M. G. Williams and James Greer.

Davies was driving west on the 200 block of Ricardo Street. The foot brake failed. He slammed on the emergency brake. The rear wheels locked and the car veered across the road, slid 120 feet, hit the curb, tore through four mailboxes, chewed across two lawns and hit a parked car owned by Arthur R. Senter of 257 Ricardo Street, said the highway patrol.

While being questioned, Davis shouted obscenities, the officers said. He was freed in $110 bail to appear in Municipal Court late Wednesday.

Auto Reported Stolen, But Driven Only Eight Feet

A Mill Valley Coast Guardsman was jailed yesterday for auto theft. Sheriff's deputy James B. Kane said the stolen car was driven only eight feet.

Ronald Jay Beasley, 20, of 152 Almonte Boulevard, was freed on $1,100 bail and scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court Wednesday.

Irving R. Cohen, 31 Morningsun Avenue, Mill Valley, called for help when he was awakened at 1:35 a.m. by a crash. He ran outside to find his 1955 auto had been run off the road and was leaning against a tree which prevented it from rolling into a ravine.

Cohen said he saw a man run away. Kane found a wallet belonging to Beasley, and picked him up soon after. The deputy said Beasley admitted starting the car because he was tired of walking" and had run his own car into a ditch.

TIMES SQUARE—Theater marquees and idlers mark this area of New York's 42nd Street, southern boundary of the city's Time Square. (AP Wirephoto)

WINDOW GLASS IS SMUDGED

Times Square: U.S. Crossroads Of Hope, Despair, Crusaders

By CHARLES L. WEST

NEW YORK (AP)—A street preacher stands beneath a movie marquee and beseeches all who will hear him not to see the nudie double feature inside.

He is generally ignored except for the icy stares of the theater manager.

Down the street, a hole-in-the-wall book store dares the pornography laws. A stroller pauses to glance at the paperbacks with the salacious titles.

This is Times Square, the window through which most of America looks at New York. And the glass is smudged.

Billy Graham went there one night last week, hidden behind dark glasses, and he was shocked: "Sex everywhere! Pornography everywhere!"

But Times Square is more than this.

It is Graham, himself, a few years back, filling the streets with thousands come to hear his message. It is two million Americans caught up in the tumultuous celebration of World War II victory. It is a huge lighted ball at the stroke of midnight slowly descending from the Times Tower to the revelry of New Year's Eve.

And it is Times Square, carnival barker to the world. A steak for $1.19—or $12. A sidewalk crowd basking in the brassy blast of a Dixieland band. A billboard smoker, forever blowing a real gray cloud through perpetually pursed lips.

This, too, is Times Square, vital and pulsing and a live-and-let-live tolerance of visting firemen behaving as they wouldn't dare at home.

It is a curious crossroads, this Times Square which is not really a square, but a triangle. The thin wedge, three blocks long, points from 42nd Street to the intersection of Broadway and Seventh Avenue, and beyond to Duffy Square.

Here, with hearts in their mouths, come show business hopefuls from elsewhere in the nation.

For success, Broadway's din is a multitude shouting acclaim. For failure, more common on "The Street of Broken Dreams," the noise is a cold shoulder of exclusion.

The alleys are wide enough for only the successful to walk —Tin Pan Alley, fountainhead of the nation's popular music, and Shubert Alley, temple of the legitimate theater.

Its people come and go, but Times Square remains, great and gaudy, asleep 'til noon, exciting and faintly sinful, a compression of human emotion exploding in flashing lights and enormous billboards.

Goerndt Lawyers To Cross-Examine

Sausalito City Mgr. Charles A. Brown is to be put on cross-examination at tonight's continued hearing of the Sausalito board of review.

It will be the third session of the board concerning the firing of Police Chief Howard Goerndt Aug. 7 by Brown on charges of failure to perform his duties, failure to provide leadership, failure to provide efficiency and direction, and failure to set a good example as chief of police.

So far, Leland H. Jordan, attorney for Brown, has made his opening statement and has had Brown on the stand under direct questioning. Thursday Jordan estimated he will finish with Brown as his witness in about an hour. Harry S. Wainwright and James B. Leech, attorneys for Goerndt, will conduct cross-examination.

College Students Favor Controversial Speakers

Reporters on the Tower Times, College of Marin campus newspaper, queried 25 students on whether controversial speakers should be invited to speak on the campus. The answer was unanimously "yes."

The answers of the 18 women and seven men students queried were published in the paper's "Campus Query" column.

The question was put following complaints from a few sources on the recent appearance on campus of Albert J. Lima, Northern California chairman of the Communist party, who spoke on invitation of the Mariner discussion Committee, a student group.

Among the 25 answers published was that of student Carol Shaw: "The only way to know truth is to examine all sides of an issue . . . Our Constitution guarantees this in the Bill of Rights. Any so-called patriot who prohibits ideas is un-American."

San Rafael Council Due Report On Hiding Utilities

San Rafael Council 118-3 P-5

The San Rafael City Council will be presented with a report at its meeting tonight showing that of 31 cities surveyed, six require underground utilities in new subdivisions and 19 do not.

The report, requested by the council, is of a survey made by Norris W. Rawles, director of the public works department, of cities in the area served by Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

Councilmen indicated on Sept. 16 that they were split on requiring underground utilities in new subdivisions.

In existing business districts nine of the cities require underground utilities while 13 do not. For existing residential areas, none requires underground utilities.

Some cities did not answer the questionnaire. Others left certain answers blank, thus accounting for the fact that the totals do not match the total number of cities questioned.

Two of the cities, Alameda and Menlo Park, said that underground utilities were required only in certain areas of new subdivisions.

Supreme Court Rejects Desegregation Appeal

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The supreme court rejected today an appeal of the Mobile County (Ala. school board from an order requiring a start on public school desegregation this fall.

Earlier the board asked Justice Hugo L. Black to block the order pending appeal, on the grounds that it would seriously disrupt the education of the county's 75,000 school children.

Black refused to do so on Aug. 16. He said the board has known for nine years that it was running its school system in an unconstitutional manner but has done nothing about it.

The Mobile decision was the first directed towards Alabama public schools below college level since the Supreme Court's famous desegregation ruling of 1954.

In other actions before taking a two-week recess, the court today:

Agreed to hear the case of German-born Angelika L. Schneider who is fighting to regain her U. S. citizenship lost while living with her husband in their native land for more than three years. Mrs. Schneider is challenging the law which calls for denaturalization of a foreign-born American citizen who lives for three years or more in a country where he or she was previously a national.

Accepted for hearing a government appeal from an adverse anti-trust ruling. A federal district court decision had ruled against the Justice Department's claim that acquisition of the Hazel-Glass Co. by Continental Can Co. Inc., was illegal.

Granted a hearing to John Coleman, an Alabama Negro sentenced to death for the fatal shooting of a white man in 1961.

Waltz through washday with a dryer!

The tempo of washday is relaxed when you have an automatic dryer. You don't have to lift and lug those back-breaking baskets of wet wash any more. (The average homemaker handles about two tons of wet wash a year.)

Ironing is easier, too. New damp-dry settings make clothes come out just right for ironing; some come out so wrinkle-free, they need no ironing at all.

You'll be able to dry your wash any hour of the day or night, in any weather. Laundry comes out soft, fluffy...looks and feels good. And a dryer's ultra-violet light gives your clothes the sweet scent of summer sunshine.

You'll save money on clothing—especially for "small fry." Clothing lasts longer, and fewer clothes and linens are needed when you can wash and dry any time. Why not waltz down to your Reddy Recommended Dealer's today?

Let's Not Cheapen Red As A Sign Of Road Danger

When Marin County supervisors come to grips tomorrow with the question of whether red lighted signs should be permitted in unincorporated areas, it's to be hoped that the matter will receive more thoughtful consideration than seems to have been the case before the County Planning Commission last Monday.

The commission recommended by the narrow margin of a 4-3 vote that the county reverse its policy against such signs. There has been some heavy business pressure to allow the use of red and Marin cities don't ban it as has been county practice.

Commissioner Wachsman was quoted as "seeing nothing wrong" with red and feeling that elimination of just one color was "arbitrary," Chairman Niels Schults Jr. said the ban was "archaic" apparently stemming from when red was the only color neon signs could handle, and Commissioner H. C. Hankins thought it merely a case of likes and dislikes.

It may not be the most vital issue on earth but it's a little more specific than that, as the commission minority apparently understood better than the majority. Red is the color used in this county and everywhere for "Stop!" on signal lights, which probably even the minority realizes. Therefore in some places the importance of preserving it as a warning color is recognized even farther than in banning red sign-lights.

There are areas where the color red as vehicle paint has been reserved for fire and police vehicles and ambulances. This clearly is going too far and it is an unenforceable rule in a free country because even if it were mandatory in one city, county or even state, traveling strangers would be forever embroiled with the authorities if they happened to have a lively taste in car-color.

But we mention the matter as indicative of the seriousness attached by many experts to keeping red as a special warning hue.

The danger lies less in somebody stopping or slowing because of the sudden glimpsing of something red ahead, than in drivers' becoming so accustomed to red—particularly red lights—as to lose part of their usual reactions to red as a stop signal.

Psychologically there's something to it. Enough, we'd say, for the county to continue its past practice of banning red in lights for signs, and to press Marin cities to adopt similar rule.

A question affecting general public safety certainly takes precedence over the wishes of commercial enterprises.

Please Hand Us $2,500 For The Lady

A Marin lady with a high sense of duty phoned with her solution of the Golden Gate Bridge's vexed "one-way tolls" problem.

Her answer was practical and to the point— a feminine characteristic which raises in our mind the question of whether we don't need some lady directors on the bridge board.

"Charge the toll only north-bound," said the lady. "Commuter traffic going south in the morning should be allowed to drive right through without a stop to pay toll. This would give every commuter 15 more minutes in bed."

So far as we can see that lady deserves $2,500 recently appropriated to cover substantially her point. Unluckily we didn't retain her name, nor do we have the $2,500.

But if she and the bridge directors will respectively repair these omissions we'll be happy to make the award with a photographer present.

Wet Weather Compensations

Sunny skies have come to symbolize happiness, but rainy days and nights have their compensations too. As winter weather is upon us, we will enjoy them.

Mother Nature takes over the watering chores and gives the gardener a respite. Those rainy nights are great for reading by the fire or watching TV or just plain sleeping to the music of the downpour.

In winter we appreciate a good roof more and have less desire to venture forth. We have more time to count our blessings.

WASHINGTON SIDELIGHT

Madame Nhu At Least Ag'in 'Terpsichorean Torture'

By DICK WEST
United Press International

IN THE PAST fortnight virtually every newsman with access to the public print has had a go at South Viet Nam's Madame Nhu.

There is something about this incredible and controversial lady that is journalistically challenging. She has the same effect on newsmen that Mount Everest has on mountain climbers.

Not being an expert on Asian affairs, I wouldn't attempt to weigh the impact of her U. S. visit on relations between her country and America.

There is, however, one facet of her career that I am more than qualified to appraise. I refer to her action in banning dancing in Viet Nam.

IF MADAME NHU feels that some unkind things have been written about her, she might like to know that on this issue at least there is one American newsman who is with her 100 per cent.

Being one of the most dedicated non - dancers in the Western Hemsiphere, I regard her anti-dancing edict as a boon to humanity.

"My country is the only country in the world where we never danced," Madame Nhu explained when asked about the ban. "When we meet, we enjoy ourselves."

Bravo! Well said! There are few things on earth more deleterious to enjoyment than dancing.

IMAGINE a land that is free of the gavot, the minuet, the reel, the jig, the hornpipe, the cakewalk, the quadrille, the waltz, the polka, the mazurka, the schottische, the two - step and the fox-trot, not to mention the Highland Fling, the rhumba, the samba, the bossa nova and the twist.

Imagine a land where a man can take his wife out to dinner without first surreptitiously checking to make certain the joint doesn't have a dance floor.

Imagine being able to go home from a party without having your companion of the evening berate you for making her feel like a wallflower.

Imagine never again being informed that you have insulted the hostess by not asking her to dance.

I'LL TELL YOU, chums, if Madame Nhu's policy were universally adopted it would eliminate the singlemost sedulous source of marital friction.

Possibly she deserved some of the criticism sent her way. But any woman who takes a stand against terpsichorean torture can't be all bad.

Gould's Application Received, Rejected

Editor, Independent-Journal:

This office is in receipt of the application of a member of your staff, Randall Gould (as made through his I.-J. Reporter's Notebook column of Oct. 23) for the position of editor of our new monthly publication, "The Sun," an excellent, delightful, free newsletter about senior citizens and their activities in Marin County which may be obtained, without cost, by any interested older person in the county by writing me at 2144 Fourth Street, San Rafael, or by phoning 456-4500, after Oct. 28, when the first amazing issue of this fine, two-page mimeographed publication will be available to an eagerly awaiting public.

(I mention these details only, of course, to clarify of which monthly publication Mr. Gould wishes to be editor.)

While it was a unique and public sort of way to apply for a job, I have come to understand that things are done differently in Marin County, and I am happy to make my acknowledgment publicly and in the same spirit.

I have written Mr. Gould directly to indicate that his application will be studied along with two others, my own and Mr. Manny Charnow's, and that after careful and just consideration of all three he will receive notification of which of the two of us I have selected.

Onward And Upward In San Rafael

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I would like to encourage the citizens of San Rafael to view the improvements that have been made at the intersection of Mission and Nye Streets—particularly the new Title Insurance building and its landscaping — this had been an eyesore for many years and now it has been converted into a beautiful section.

The architecture is beautiful unlike some of the modern eyesores that have been recently built in the City of San Rafael.

May I suggest that when we build our new City Hall that we endeavor to keep it along the lines of the above described improvements. As we all know, our present City Hall was allowed to run down — no speaking amplifier, thereby making it almost useless to attend council meetings because the citizens attending found it impossible to hear what was being discussed — it is my belief as well as most of the citizens of our city that we have a right to know what is being discussed.

Therefore when our new City Hall is built if it is not properly maintained, may I suggest we change the crew.

Bulldozer, Stay Away From My Door!

Editor, Independent-Journal:

As residents of 159 Golden Hinde, Terra Linda Valley, my husband and I emphatically object to the zoning of the Northgate Drive-Nova Albion 82 Acre hill for multiple dwelling.

We bought our home and moved here for the peaceful country atmosphere of the area. The hills, with native oaks, the wildflowers, the song of the meadowlarks, the fresh clean air, and the single dwelling neighborhood environment for our children to play and be educated in.

Must we be smothered by the constant fumes of excessive traffic on our residential streets? Must the turf of our hills be ripped and turned into asphalt and towering eye-sores, and the squeak and rattle of the bulldozers be vibrated in our "Beautiful Marin"?

We sincerely hope that enough people have the proper appreciation of the advantages of our area, just as it is, to insist that this proposed zoning is denied.

'False Conclusion' About Schools

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In your editorial of Thursday, Oct. 24, you concluded that most school boards in northeast Marin don't want citizens to have their say at public hearings and vote on the issue of school district unification. You seemed to draw this conclusion, a false one, from the fact that these school boards have criticisms of the Booz-Allen and Hamilton report to the Marin County Committee on School District Organization.

Each district, as well as the County Superintendent of Schools office, furnished funds for this study. Each district board should therefore view the result in terms of expected value to district taxpayers. Three boards and the county committee also have found the report wanting and incomplete. For one example, the committee must still find out for itself how different unification proposals would affect taxes and available amounts of state and federal aid.

A unified district is one which teaches grades 1-12, and there are a variety of unification proposals which can be made and voted on. We need to compare them on the basis of the effects which can be foreseen on education and on finances.

I am sure that the board of the Dixie Elementary School District agrees with your desire for citizens to have their say at public meetings. Our meetings are completely public, and they are sufficiently informal that no one should feel he hasn't had his say. We will continue to encourage discussion in the interest of an informed public so that change can bring improvement. If your main point is "Let's get on with it," I'm with you.

It is hard to find a school district which has changed faster than Dixie in recent years—we thrive on change —but we insist that change should move toward improvement.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A French playwright visited our shores this season with his new and beautiful wife in tow. Unbelievably jealous, he had her shadowed constantly by private detectives until

American friends told him, "We don't do things that way over here. Your behavior is an insult to all womanhood. Call off those gumshoes immediately." Reluctantly the French playwright followed their directive. The very next day his bride slapped him across the face, crying, "You do not love me any more!"

A youngster's favorite uncle, unwed at thirty-five, finally succumbed to the allure of a trim young miss. A week before the wedding the youngster asked his mother, "They give them everything they want to eat the last day, don't they?"

Madame Nhu Wins Our Governor To New View About Uproar

SACRAMENTO — Gov. Edmund G. Brown no doubt is correct but apparently a bit inconsistent in his public plea for a "courteous welcome" in California on behalf of Madame Nhu of Viet Nam.

The governor said he had been advised that some Californians who disagree with her plan a greeting with "organized demonstrations."

"I appeal," the governor said, "to these Californians to remember that the most basic right in this country is the right to be heard. Madame Nhu may not be an official guest, but she is a guest, and she is entitled to a courteous welcome, if not a warm one.

"DEMONSTRATING, picketing, creating a turmoil around the lady would be nothing more that a localized version of jamming a radio circuit. This is a practice we have left to people with less faith than ours in the power of truth and the ability of people to see the truth."

The governor's attitude appears to contrast mightily with his regard concerning the conduct of an organization known as CORE, or the Congress of Racial Equality, in its attempt last spring to intimidate the state legislature by moving into the state capitol and transforming the second floor rotunda into a camp ground.

Governor Brown was on hand to welcome the CORE group, shake their hands and declare that he was glad the group was there to help him push through the Rumford Housing bill, which deprives citizens of rights in handling their own property.

CERTAINLY the CORE contingent had the right to be heard by the state legislature, and no one attempted to deprive them of that right.

But in appropriating use of a public building, and in interfering with the normal processes of law making by creating scenes, attempting to instigate violence and departing from the normal processes of representation before committees, the group seemed to many, in the words of former U.S. Sen. William F. Knowland, to "infringe on the civil and constitutional rights of 190 million Americans."

IT IS HARD to reconcile the governor's reasoning as to why he sanctions demonstrations against the state legislature, whose members are the elected representatives of the people, and his unwillingness to have demonstrations against Madame Nhu, who has a little less than nothing to do with the people of California.

Madame Nhu is, of course, conceded to be entitled to courteous treatment wherever she goes, and particularly in California, which supposedly is noted for western hospitality.

One does not have to agree to be courteous.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Attorney General Orders Negroes In Department

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy is stepping up his civil rights crusade by taking it directly into his own department.

The president's brother is demanding that more Negroes be employed there.

"Recruit them if necessary," he has sternly ordered his top lieutenants.

This forceful edict was laid down by young Kennedy at a two - hour meeting with the heads of Justice Department divisions, sections, bureaus and other agencies. He told them he had been studying the department's personnel rolls and had found that of its more than 31,000 employees, less than 10 per cent are Negroes.

"THAT'S NOT enough," declared Kennedy. "We can't be pressing Congress for enactment of civil rights legislation and urging private industry to employ more Negroes, when we aren't doing our share along that line.

"I want you to give immediate consideration to bringing more Negroes into the department, not only here in Washington but throughout the country.

"Recruit them if necessary. But get them.

"It goes without saying they must be qualified. That's absolutely essential. We're not letting down any bars on that score. But this department must have more qualified Negroes in every category on its rolls, and I want prompt action on that."

KENNEDY ALSO has directed U. S. attorneys to keep a close eye on racial disturbances in their jurisdictions. He personally telephoned the U. S. attorney in Chicago for a report on the explosive situation there.

Two of the attorney general's sons — Joseph, 11, and Robert Jr., 9—have been enrolled in an integrated private school operated by the Society of Friends (Quakers). It has eight Negroes in a student body of more that 250.

The two Kennedy boys are transported daily in a chauffeured car from their home in Virginia to the school in Washington.

VICE PRESIDENT Lyndon Johnson is shortly going to Europe again—this time with the mission of furthering President Kennedy's strategy of trying to "isolate" President de Gaulle.

Johnson is leaving soon for a visit to the Benelux countries — Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. During this jaunt, he will make two major addresses—at The Hague and in Amsterdam on Nov. 7 and 8. Both talks are being written in the State Department for personal scrutiny by the president.

In these speeches, Johnson will expound the administration's trade and agricultural policies as they relate to the Common Market, where they are under fire, chiefly by the French.

On this trip, Johnson will ostentatiously bypass France.

THAT IS being done despite the strong recommendation of Ambassador Charles Bohlen that Johnson make a stop in Paris for a talk with De Gaulle. The president himself turned that down.

This will be the third time that he and Johnson have been in Europe this year and pointedly avoided De Gaulle.

This public cold - shouldering of De Gaulle is part of a carefully calculated administration policy of attempting to "isolate" him from the other European powers.

Wherein Gould Job Application Lands On Its Rusty-Dusty

Mr. Randall Gould,
Independent-Journal.

Dear Mr. Gould:

Your application for position of editor of "The Sun," the new monthly publication for Marin County's older people, has been received with much appreciation. (Embodied in Gould column of Oct. 23.)

TRUE, it arrived in a somewhat unusual way; ordinarily applications for employment are treated as confidential matters, particularly when an applicant is working and may not wish his employer to suspect that he may be dissatisfied with his current position.

I would like you to know, however, that my personal reaction is favorable. You have shown a certain independence of spirit which I hope will always underlie the editorial policies of "The Sun."

The form of your application is, therefore, a point in your favor; and I am acknowledging it officially and equally publicly in a separate letter to your editor.

IN ALL FAIRNESS to you, however, I must warn you against burning any bridges behind you quite yet. Yours is the third application, and one of my firm policies is to serve first those who come first, particularly since Application #1 was my own.

I will be 65 in only 21 years; and as the position of editor is often thought to be a key one on a newspaper, it may take, oh 21 years of careful evaluation of all applications before I make a final selection.

In the meanwhile, of course, I shall have to be acting editor.

THE SECOND application is, as you suspected, Manny Charnow's.

But aside from the fact that he is Mr. Senior Citizen, has been active in this field for more years than I can count, and is on my Advisory Committee, he has no more qualifications than any other supremely warm-hearted, knowledgeable, intelligent and personable individual.

FINALLY, there is an individual I hope will apply, of whom I know by the name of Agnes, who knows the difference between correspondent and corespondent.

This fills me with admiration because, as with "prone" and "supine", I've never been able to remember.

In fact, when writing a news release about "The Sun," I decided to use the word "representative" instead —just to be on the safe side.

(I admit to agreeing with Mark Twain that the soul is to be pitied who has so little imagination that he can spell a word only one way — and don't you think hazzard looks more hazardous that way? and that it is against the very nature of auxiliary not to have included in it an auxiliary "l"?)

AGAIN, thank you for your application. It shall be considered carefully with the others, and when a fair and just decision has been reached you will be duly notified, with appropriate regret, who got the job.

I really am sorry. Maybe we will grow to need a co-editor.

Yours sincerely,

There'll Always Be Lobbyists And They'll Cost Plenty

WASHINGTON—It is general knowledge that lobbying is Washington's largest and most lucrative industry. But very little is known about how lobbyists operate.

There have been hearings on lobbying, but they have been mostly concerned with foreign governments and do not give a true picture of the business.

The most interesting and challenging work is done by lobbyists who represent domestic industries and specific business interests.

THIS IS how some work. A lobbyist has to create a demand for his services.

Let us say he is after the non-dissolvable cough drop industry account. The first thing he does is contact the leading manufacturers in the United States and urge them to form an association as he has heard that Congress is considering some anti-cough drop legislation.

For a small retainer he agrees to represent the association in Washington.

ONCE HE HAS the account he arranges with a Congressman, who owes the lobbyist a favor, to introduce a bill outlawing all non-dissolvable cough drops.

The lobbyist then sends out the bad news in a confidential newsletter to all association members. He warns them that they will have a tough fight ahead, as the cough syrup industry is behind the bill.

The lobbyist builds panic slowly. In his follow-up newsletter he reports that the cough syrup people have two Congressmen in their hip pockets and urges action immediately.

The association president calls a meeting of the executive board and the lobbyist is flown in to give a personal report.

HE TELLS THEM frankly that he doesn't know if he can kill the bill unless he has a war chest to fight it.

Funds are voted to fight the bill, and the lobbyist agrees to see what he can do.

The next few weeks are busy ones. The lobbyist writes to the chairman of the committee, the speaker of the House, the Secretary of Commerce, and the vice-president of the United States. He throws the originals of these letters into the wastepaper basket, and sends the carbon on to the executive board.

He is in constant contact with the members. One day he has good news for them; the next day he has bad news. He needs more money.

AT LAST the lobbyist manages to have a committee hold hearings on the bill and he arranges for his clients to fly in and testify against the legislation.

This turns out to be the biggest moment in their lives. It isn't every day a cough drop manufacturer can testify in Congress.

To top it off, after the hearings, the lobbyist takes the manufacturers to dinner with two tame Congressmen and one tame Senator who are always available for free evening meals as their wives are out of town.

AT LAST, when it looks as if he can't milk the situation any longer, the lobbyist informs the association that he has managed to pigeon-hole the bill for this year.

But he warns them next year may be even a tougher fight and he suggests that they let him start on it now.

The association, eternally grateful to the lobbyist for saving the cough drop industry, votes him a motion of thanks and a new war chest.

As one association member puts it: "If it wasn't for him, where would we be?"

WINNING BRIDGE

Stopping Cheap Bridge Game Can Be Very Expensive Move

You can score a game more easily with a part score than without one, but this doesn't give the part score its chief value.

The real profit comes when the opponents try to stop you from making a "cheap" game.

Opening lead — ♠ 2

No sane, experienced player would bid two spades with the South hand—except in a part score situation. East-West had a part score of 60 points, and South hoped to push West beyond his depth.

TAME WEST

A tame West might have passed in the hope of beating two spades without risking a double.

But then East would bid, and East might find a way of going down at three diamonds. West's double was a much better move.

West opened a low trump in the hope of reducing dummy's ruffing power. As it happened, the lead cost nothing since East produced the queen of spades.

STARTS CLUBS

South won with the ace of spades and returned a low club, hoping to set up his long suit.

West won with the eight of clubs and led out the king and jack of spades to remove dummy's trumps.

East had the chance to discard the nine of diamonds on the third trump, so West shifted to the king of diamonds.

FOUR TRICKS

Now South could make only four tricks in all, two trumps, the ace of diamonds, and the ace of clubs.

It took a good double and fine defense to reap the harvest, but the seeds were sown when West made his part score of 60 points on an earlier hand.

In this case the part score was worth 1,100 points.

Man's Heart Uses Artificial Pump

LOS ANGELES (AP)—For four days last July, a man lived with a substitute plastic pump implanted in his heart.

It coursed the blood through his body, driven by a pulsing air compressor lying beside him.

It marked the first historic step in a human, with partial success, toward the grand goal of giving doomed heart patients a substitute mechanical heart to restore health and life.

Dr. Michael Debakey, professor of surgery at Baylor University Medical School, described the human drama and its portent yesterday at closing sessions of the American Heart Association.

Only 42, the man had congestive heart failure and had lost 50 pounds during two weeks in the hospital despite all medicines. A faulty heart valve was replaced, but he grew worse.

His left ventricle, the heart chamber which pumps blood through the great artery or aorta to all parts of the body was weakened. His lungs filled with fluid. His heart kept stopping.

On July 19, doctors put the substitute plastic chamber in the man's heart. The compressor, through an air tube leading through the chest wall to the plastic chamber, restored a strong heart beat.

Blood pressure and the electrical action of his heart returned to normal.

He lived four days, then succumbed to past complications that couldn't be overcome, Dr. Debakey said, adding, "had he been less severely ill, we might have saved him."

And the portents?

For temporary resting of the heart—for days or weeks, far longer than can be done with external heart-lung machines—the bypass pumping chamber could very well see patients past a crisis.

Student Cars Strike Buses

Mill Valley police reported today that in the past three days there have been two accidents in which students, en route to school, have bumped their cars into the rear of Greyhound buses on Miller Avenue.

At 8:15 a.m. today Dianne Regina Davies, 19, of 106 Wisteria Way, Mill Valley, was treated for cuts at Marin General Hospital after the car in which she was riding struck a bus driven by Robert Errington, 32, of Oakland, at South Miller and Park avenues. The girl's head struck the windshield.

Patricia Sue Caldwell, 16, of 27 Reed Boulevard, driver of the car, was examined at the hospital but found uninjured.

At 8:12 a.m. Friday William Ernest Bowers, 28, of Rohnert Park, Sonoma County, reported he stopped his bus at Miller and Montford avenues when it was struck from behind by a car driven by Richard Claude Tremelling, 15, of 350 Corte Madera Avenue, Mill Valley.

Tremelling, a Tamalpais High School student, was treated at Marin General Hospital for a scalp cut, as was his passenger, Richard Holtz, of 315 Oakdale Avenue.

The federation plans special programs in hospitals and rest homes during the Christmas season.

Judge Denies Stay For Felon Scheduled For Gas Chamber

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — U.S. Judge A. J. Zirpoli today denied a stay of execution requested by Lawrence A. Jackson, under sentence to die in San Quentin Prison's gas chamber Wednesday for a rape-murder.

Judge Zirpoli likewise denied Jackson's petition for a writ of habeas corpus.

Allen Brotsky, Jackson's court-appointed attorney, argued as he has in past appeals for the condemned man, that Jackson is dominated by a sex urge he cannot control.

Judge Zirpoli noted that Jackson was convicted of killing a woman in perpetration of rape, and that he had never entered a plea of insanity.

Brotsky said he would carry the case at once to the U.S. Court of Appeals.

Earlier the California Supreme Court denied a stay of execution and the U.S. Supreme court denied a petition for a review of the case.

Jackson, 33, raped and murdered Doris Keyes in Riverside County last year, less than five days after serving eight and one-half years in prison for an attack on another woman.

He has spent more than half his adult life in prisons for sex attack.

UNICEF Fund Drive Set By Children

About 1,000 children throughout Marin are ready to go from door to door on Halloween to collect money for the annual UNICEF drive.

Instead of asking for treats they will be asking for pennies and dimes to aid the health and education of children throughout the world. The United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund is in its 15th year and has donated about $320,000,000 to 137 countries.

Last year's drive in Marin collected more than $4,000. For the past two months area chairmen in all parts of the county have planned the Halloween campaign under the direction of general chairman Mrs. Dore N. Schwab Jr. of Ross.

In San Anselmo, Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls have put up posters announcing the UNICEF drive in schools and shops, and the "San Anselmo Witches" will be ready to make change for residents in the Sleepy Hollow area as an aid to the children's drive.

In Marinwood, refreshments will await the UNICEF "Trick or Treaters" when they gather later Thursday night at the Mary E. Silveira School and the Church of the Nativity.

Idea For Halloween: Turn Night Into Day

How about "turning night into day" on Halloween by turning on all porch and outside lights to cut down on vandalism?

The idea was advanced today by Mrs. Cleo Mueller of 401 Mission Avenue, San Rafael. She said this could supplement the reverse-twist-on-Halloween idea proposed last week by Mrs. Charles W. Aby. Mrs. Aby suggested that children be sent out to leave treats at other people's homes instead of begging for treats, thus eliminating the "extortion" idea from Halloween.

Mrs. Mueller said she talked with Mrs. Aby and others, and all agreed that turning on all outside lights on Halloween would help stop vandalism and protect children who are out in dark costumes.

"We could turn on all porch and outside lights and floodlights, and schools and city and county offices could illuminate the building exterior and grounds," suggested Mrs. Mueller.

The electric bill will be a little higher, "but look at the expense of repairing a football turf or lawn that has been cut up by spinning car wheels," said Mrs. Mueller. "The lights could be left on until 3 or 4 a.m., or all night for that matter."

In some cases, the bright lights might bother the sleep of some persons, Mrs. Mueller admitted, "but this would be only for one night, and it would be a comfort to know that everyone's property was being better protected."

"Everyone can be a policeman that night," Mrs. Mueller reasoned, if all street lights and home lights are kept glowing.

Fantastic Nicklaus, U. S. Win International Titles

PARIS (AP)—Jack Nicklaus fired a fantastic five-birdie 32 for nine holes today and spearheaded the United States team of Arnold Palmer and himself to victory in the fog-abbreviated Canada Cup Golf Tournament.

Nicklaus, the husky 23-year-old belter from Columbus, Ohio, finished the nine holes in four under par and took the individual title with a 63-hole total of 237.

The tournament was decided over 63 holes because swirling fog prevented play over the full distance of 72 holes.

Tournament director Fred Corcoran said all of the 33 teams would finish the 63 holes "even if we have to floodlight the course."

Spaniards Sebastian Miguel and Ramon Sota finished second in the team tournament with a 63-hole total of 485, three strokes behind the 482 fashioned by Nicklaus and Palmer.

South Africans Gary Player and Retief Waltman wound up third with a 492 total. Then came Canadians Al Balding and Stan Leonard with 495 followed by Australians Bruce Crampton and Bruce Devlin with 497.

Nicklaus had been tied with Player at the end of 54 holes.

Palmer, a member of two of the three previous U.S. championship teams, had a 245. He had a 34 for the final nine holes.

The final round originally was scheduled for Sunday but was postponed because of a heavy fog. Fog blanketed the par 72 Saint-nom-la-Breteche links today but, after a long delay, lifted enough to permit the players from 33 countries to tee off. Corcoran ruled, however, that the round be reduced to nine holes because of weather conditions and the fact a number of the players have commitments in Australia Wednesday.

Spain, tied with Nicklaus and Palmer at 416 for the team championship going into the final round, ended up with 485. Sebastion Miguel had a 33 for a 63-hole total of 242 and Ramon Sota a 36 for a 243.

Player finished with a 37, giving him a 63-hole total of 242 and a tie with Miguel.

Marin Tars Down Yuba 49ers, 22-13

Thanks to a fine second half effort, College of Marin's footballers turned back the Yuba College 49ers 22-13 Saturday night in Marysville.

Yuba led at halftime 7-6, but the Tars turned on the offense and defense after intermission to take home the victory. The Mariners built up a 22-7 lead before Yuba scored its last touchdown in the last four minutes of play.

The Tars scored their first touchdown in the opening quarter on a 75-yard drive. On a fourth down and four-to-go play, quarterback Bob Sparrow ran 16 yards on a keeper play to score the TD.

Then in the third quarter Ray Miller scored the second Mariner touchdown on a five-yard run over right end. Two points were added to the scoreboard on a pass from Sparrow to Martin Baccaglio.

Shortly after the start of the final period, Miller scored again, this time on a one-yard plunge through right guard. A Sparrow to Randy Petrini pass was good for two points, giving the Tars a 22-17 bulge. Then the 49ers added their second tally.

The victory put the Mariners into a three-way tie for the lead in the Golden Valley Conference with Santa Rosa and Napa, all with 2-0 records in conference play.

Head coach for the Tars, Dick Read, praised the offensive play of Rich Botini, a halfback, and Miller, a fullback. The two gridders had to take over for halfback John Shaskan and fullback Gary Bradley who were slowed up because of ankle injuries. Both will be OK for next Saturday's clash with Napa, a vital game, reported Read.

Read said he felt the Mariners tackled well, blocked good and provided a good pass defense in the second half of the game, much better than the first half.

Read also lauded the school spirit being provided by Tar backers this season. Four busloads of rooters and numerous carloads drove to Marysville for the battle. "I would like to thank them for their backing," Read said "On behalf of the team and coaches I would like to express our gratitude."

Next Saturday's clash with Napa will be played in Napa starting at 8 p.m.

The Chargers, who had beaten Oakland in every one of their previous 11 meetings, dropped a squeaker to the Raiders yesterday, 34-33.

The loss puts the Chargers just one and a half games in front of Oakland in the Western Division race.

Oakland quarterback Cotton Davidson threw a nine-yard pass to Glenn Shaw for the deciding touchdown with less than two minutes left in the game.

The Chargers had a 17-14 half-time lead, took a 26-21 advantage in the third quarter and still had a 33-28 edge in the fourth, after trailing 28-26.

That's when the Raiders took off on a 63-yard drive that ended with Shaw's touchdown catch. Shaw, who formerly played for Los Angeles, Minnesota and San Francisco in the National League, was activated only Sunday with the Chargers.

RAMS WIN, 28-21

Plop! 49ers Drop Into NFL Cellar

LOS ANGELES (AP)—There were enough heroes to please everyone today as the Los Angeles Rams held a unique celebration.

The gaiety was based on the fact that they won their second straight game in the National Football Leogue, something the Rams had not done since Minnesota and the San Francisco 49ers fell in 1961.

Yesterday in Memorial Coliseum, before 45,532 fans, it was the Rams by 28-21.

Quarterback Roman Gabriel, executing a play he's never tried before in actual combat, scored the winning touchdown —a 12-yard quarterback draw play.

"We only installed the play last week, I thought he did it very well."

So said a happy young coach, Harland Svare, obviously with tongue in cheek.

"The Rams," said losing coach Jack Christiansen, "have arrived."

Just a week ago the 49ers had beaten the then-unbeaten Chicago Bears.

"The Rams this day were better than the Bears last week," Christiansen noted, which also seemed elementary.

SEE-SAW BATTLE

It was a see-saw battle and left the 49ers alone in the Western Division basement, the Rams one step out of it.

Gabriel piloted the club to a 14-0 lead but before the half ended it was 14-7.

Quarterback Lamar McHan and the abruptly aroused 49ers boomed back with two touchdowns and a 21-14 lead in the third quarter.

Then just as suddenly, the Rams came back with two touchdowns in the final quarter, the first on a beautiful pass for 51 yards to Carroll Dale that tied up the game.

Gabriel's 38-yard pass to Red Phillips set up what proved to be the winning touchdown. With third and four, the 221-pound, 6-3 Gabriel fell back as if to pass, but quickly charged straight ahead into almost open territory.

Two 49ers, Jim Johnson and Mike Dowdle, closed it and were swept into the end Zone with Big Gabe.

San Francisco, which had run successfully against the Bears, couldn't gain on the Ram line. McHan then went upstairs. He handed off to Don Lisbon who fired to Gary Knafelc for 45 yards for the tying touchdown and a 39-yard throw to Bernie Casey set up the go-ahead touchdown.

Gabriel, now firmly entrenched as the winners' quarterback, connected on 15 of 25 passes for 232 yards, two touchdowns—and his own personally scored six-pointer.

The Rams head for Minnesota Sunday and the 49ers entertain the Detroit Lions.

Injun Tackle Is Lineman Of Week

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Al Hildebrand, whose crashing tackles Saturday played a key role in Stanford's 24-14 upset of Notre Dame, today received the Big Six's "Lineman of the Week" award.

The 230-pound, six foot five inch Hildebrand, a native of Houston, Tex., was named the game's outstanding lineman in 24 out of 27 press box ballots.

A senior tackle, he helped hold the Irish to 91 yards rushing and 99 yards passing.

Stanford Wows TV Audience With Upset Over Irish

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Color Stanford "dead" in the Big Six race but the Indians were very much alive on a national scale today with a rousing, 24-14 upset of Notre Dame.

Two touchdowns underdogs at the kickoff last Saturday, the Tribe galvanized a home crowd of 55,000 and countless television viewers by twice coming from behind to flatten the Irish behind great blocking and halfback Steve Thurlow's clutch scores.

The reconverted quarterback tallied twice and passed for another touchdown that sewed up the game.

Yet the Indians are stuck in the Big Six basement with an 0-2 mark and will be spinning their wheels at Oregon State next Saturday when they face the Beavers in a non-conference tilt.

CRUCIAL GAME

The race for the Rose Bowl may be settled in Seattle on the same day when Southern California and Washington, who are rated one-two for the title, come to grips.

Another Big Sixer between potential also rans is at Los Angeles where California and UCLA tangle.

Notre Dame took a one touchdown lead over Stanford and clung to a 14-10 margin at the half. But Thurlow scored his second touchdown of the day from five yards out to put the Indians ahead permanently in the third period and passed seven yards to Ray Handley for a clincher. Great defensive play by tackle Al Hildebrand kept the Irish offense in trouble.

Form prevailed at Berkeley, where Southern California knocked off California, 36-6, without much strain. Willie Brown set up the first two touchdowns with punt returns of 43 and 36 yards and USC held a 28-0 advantage at the half.

WASHINGTON WINS

In other games, Washington defeated tricky Oregon, 26-19, Syracuse battered Oregon State, 31-8, Army blanked Washington State, 23-0, Idaho nailed San Jose State, 28-12, Utah State swept by the University of the Pacific, 40-14 and Fresno State downed Los Angeles State, 35-20.

Junior Coffey, officially "sidelined for the season," with a broken foot last month, made his first start of the year Saturday for washington and was the key man in the Huskies' win over Oregon. He not only packed the ball 112 yards in 30 carries but smashed over for his second touchdown from four yards out during the final minutes of play to win it. Mel Renfro, Oregon's great halfback, was hurt midway through the third period and sat it out for the rest of the way.

Terra Linda Tops Marin 'Cats, 13-6

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Terra Linda High School's Trojan grid team today is resting in second place in the Marin Athletic League standings after setting down the Marin Catholic Wildcats 13-6 Saturday on the Trojans' field.

The running of fullback Steve Frazzini was too much for the Wildcats to cope with as he ripped off a pair of touchdown runs of 49 and 58 yards to lead his team to the second spot in standings with a 3-1 record. Terra Linda trails Drake, which has four victories and no defeats so far in the MAL.

Frazzini provided 99 per cent of the Trojans' running attack, picking up 152 yards in 16 carries for a nifty 9.5 average. His running was needed to offset the usually reliable passing game of quarterback Bob Taylor who hit on only two of nine attempts for a meager 12 yards.

A 5-10, 180-pound junior, Frazzini started the Trojans off fast on the first Terra Linda offensive series of the game. On the first two plays of the game, he carried for gains of four and nine yeards and a Trojan first down on their own 49-yard line. Then Taylor fumbled on the next play but fell on the ball on the M.C. 49 for a two-yard gain.

FRAZZINI SCORES

From the Wildcat 49, Frazzini broke through right tackle and into daylight. He turned on the steam and outran the Wildcat secondary for a touchdown with only two minutes and 23 seconds gone in the contest.

Pete Marcovich, Terra Linda's running extra point specialist, crashed through left tackle for the seventh point.

After receiving Terra Linda's kickoff, the Wildcats were helped to a first down on a 15-yard penalty against Terra Linda. But then on the next three plays, the Wildcats were driven back toward their own goal on losses by Rick Bacich (4), Lu Ercolini (5) and Bob Carney (5), forcing them with a fourth down on their own 33.

Bob Lombardi tried to punt but it was blocked, with Terra Linda taking over 22 yards from paydirt. It looked like another Trojan touchdown in the making, but the try fell short on the two-yard line when Taylor was held to no gain on a fourth down play.

TWO INTERCEPTIONS

Then in the second quarter, the two teams exchanged punts without any serious scoring threats although the Trojans picked off two interceptions in the quarter, Dennis Camgros getting one and Dave Dohn the other. Dohn grabbed his interception on his own 20 and dashed to the Wildcats' 24, a runback of 56 yards. But with the seconds ticking away, there was time for only one play before the end of the half, that being an incomplete pass by Taylor.

Opening the second half, Marin Catholic started a drive from its own 29-yard line and in 10 plays pushed the ball to the Terra Linda 37 where it was fourth down and a yard to go. The Wildcats had been making most of their yardage through the middle and the T.L. defense tightened up to stop the fourth down play. But quarterback Bob Carney faked a handoff in the middle and raced to his left. He turned the corner and raced 37 yards for a touchdown.

Tom Bird's kick for the PAT was blocked, leaving the Trojans in front 7-6. That one point deficit lasted only 44 seconds, however.

On the ensuing kickoff Terra Linda's Dohn returned the ball from the Trojans' 25 to the 42. Then on the first down, Frazzini broke through right tackle, cut toward the sideline on the right side, and sped by the Marin Catholic defenders for a 58-yard touchdown scamper.

STOPPED SHORT

Marcovich tried the left tackle spot again for the extra point but he was stopped short.

Later in that third period, Frazzini broke through right tackle on that same play that was good for his two earlier touchdowns and collected 25 yards before the last Wildcat ran him out of bounds. It was almost three touchdowns on that same play.

The Wildcats had their last chance for the equalizer late in the final quarter when Frazzini fumbled and Marin recovered on the Trojans' 43. But on a third down play, a Carney pass was intercepted by John Forry and that was the ball game. Taylor hung on to the ball for three plays and then the final gun went off.

AWAY HE GOES—Quarterback Bob Carney of Marin Catholic races past Terra Linda's Tim Garvin en route to a 37-yard touchdown run Saturday, but it wasn't enough as Terra Linda went on to a 13-6 victory. (Independent-Journal photo)

Roger Ward Captures Sacramento 100-Miler

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The 13th annual Golden State 100-mile auto race turned out to be a lucky one for Roger Ward, twice winner at Indianapolis, who added another victory to his belt.

After qualifying for the pole position with an average time of 97.87 miles per hour, Ward crabbed the lead on the 13th lap yesterday and roared away from the rest of the field at the Sacramento Fair Grounds.

The Indianapolis veteran, driving through four yellow flags that laster for 22 laps, had a winning time of 92.17 mph in his Kaiser Aluminum Special.

A. J. Foyt, another Indianapolis winner, placed second in a Sheraton Thompson Special while behind his came two other Texans—Jim McElreath of Arlington and Lloyd Ruby of Wichita Falls.

Parnelli Jones, winner of last May's 500 at Indianapolis, lost his brakes on the 64th lap and slid into the outside guardrail. He was uninjured.

No serious injuries were reported although four autos either went out of control or had mechanical trouble at the tricky first turn.

Ward, winner of the Indianapolis classic in 1959 and 1962, captured the Golden State title for the third time. He took the lead from Johnny Rutherford of Ft. Worth, Tex. when the latter's front axle went out after completing a turn. Ward never gave up the lead after that. At times was was a quarter of a mile ahead on the dirt track.

Fifth place went to Roger McCluskey of Tucson, Ariz. He was trailed by Don Branson of Champaign, Ill., Roger Unser, of Albuquerque, N. M. and Roger Grimm of Indianapolis, Ind.

Eleven of the 18 qualifiers finished.

Giants Bowl Over Cleveland; The Great Brown Is Stopped

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ro, Lo, Mo, Ko YAT and a toe.

That spelled victory for New York Sunday, a 33-6 walloping of the previously unbeaten Cleveland Browns in a National Football League game so completely dominated by the Giants that even Coach Allie Sherman had to admit:

"Maybe, we made some mistakes out there, but I didn't see any."

As for beaten Coach Batlon Collier, he agreed:

"They simply outplayed us in every single angle of the game." And that the Giants did, from the splendid defense led by the Ro, Lo, Mo, Ko boys to the offensive heroes—Y. A. Tittle, the balding quarterback who is YAT to his teammates, and Don Chandler, the man with the toe that kicked four field goals.

But the biggest single factor had to be the defense, led by the fearsome front four of Ro, Lo, Mo, Ko—Andy Robustelli, John Loveters, Dick Modzeleyski and Jim Katcavage, who conforms to Ko because "Kat don't go."

Neither did Jimmy Brown, nor Frank Ryan. Brown, the league's No. 1 rusher with a 150-yard-a-game average, was limited to 40 yards in nine carries. Ryan completed exactly one pass in nine attempts and wound up with a minus six yards for his efforts.

LEAD CONFERENCE

The Browns' loss deprived the NFL of its last unbeaten team, but Cleveland still leads the Eastern Conference with a 6-1 record, one game ahead of New York and St. Louis, both 5-2. The Cardinals kept pace with the Giants as Charlie Johnson pitched three TD passes in a 21-7 victory over Washington.

Green Bay and Chicago remained tied for the top spot in the West. The Packers made the most of top performances by second-stringers John Roach and Elijah Pitts for a 34-20 walloping of Baltimore and the Bears defeated Philadelphia 16-7 on two long drives engineered by Billie Wade.

Elsewhere, Ed Brown passed for four touchdowns as Pittsburgh edged Dallas 27-21, Detroit got three TD passes from Earl Morrall in a 28-10 triumph over Minnesota and Los Angeles used Roman Gabriel's passing to down San Francisco 28-21.

In the American League, Oakland upset San Diego 34-33 and Houston whipped Kansas City 28-7. Buffalo defeated Boston 28-21 and New York and Denver tied 35-35 Saturday night.

The Giants scored the first seven times they had the ball, with Tittle passing 23 yards to Del Shofner and six to Hugh McElhenney for TDs, Alex Webster smashing two yards for another and Chandler kicking field goals of 29, 34, 35 and 42 yards. The Browns scored on a 10-yard pass from reserve quarterback Jim Ninowski to Rich Kreitling in the final quarter.

Compassion—On Cue

The other noon, as I was having a lonely lunch, I couldn't help but overhear the outspoken comments at the bar. The topic of discussion was not what you might expect from a bar. And other topics I have overheard at other times do not merit repetition in this family newspaper. But, this time, the topic was the recent disaster in Italy, where the broken dam created so much havoc.

The voices were adamant and vociferous in their united horror and indignation over the calamity, and the suspected negligence that caused it. And there was sympathy too, for countless victims, living and dead. A suggestion was made to start a fund-raising campaign to aid those made orphans and homeless by the catastrophe. The fund started on the spot.

This selfless concerted action was heart-warming to this eavesdropper. It reaffirmed again my conviction that there is more good in most of us than we care to admit for fear of being considered "soft," a label to be strenuously avoided in today's rather callous headlong quest for success, on a solid gold standard. It would be infinitely more gratifying, however, to discover this wave of cooperative compassion emerge without the stimulus of a particularly spectacular tragedy.

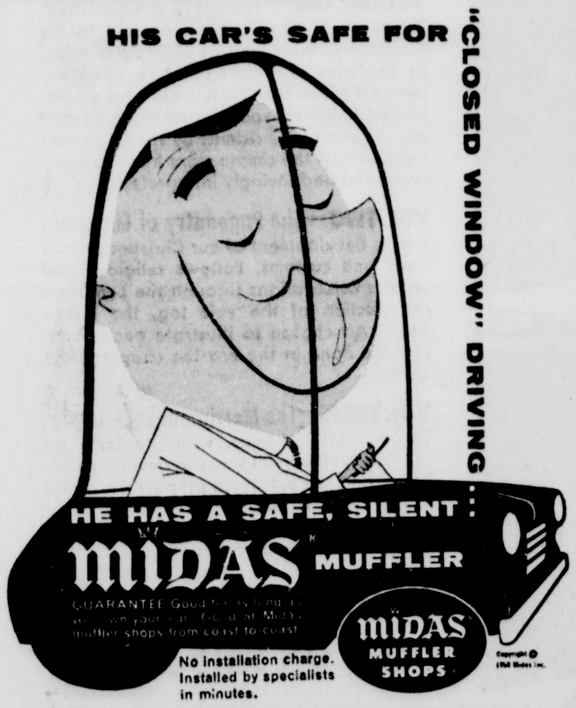

It would be comforting, for example, to find something more than a casual, detached curiosity over a news item describing a typical weekend of traffic carnage. Confidence in the resurgence of the mass conscience would be restored with a display of something greater than irritation or annoyance over a bureaucratic edict which plows under countless tons of wheat and injects a nauseous dye into millions of potatoes to discourage possible human consumption, while there is even one poor soul on this earth who tries to sleep away a gnawing hunger.

Instead of concern for hysterical and calculated waste on one hand and privation and starvation on the other, we find the ludicrous gagster who will see humor in the fable of the farmer who, already far and lazy with his subsidy for not raising wheat, inquires greedily of the government agent how can he qualify for a subsidy to refrain from raising hogs.

Until the day we can muster, individually, sufficient unmotivated benevolence to be genuinely concerned over the misfortunes of our fellow-man, not necessarily on a mass basis, via a disaster, but, rather, on a personal, individual basis, we cannot logically expect an end to bigotry and wars.

On the local level, and, admittedly on a commercial basis, I preach without the doctrine of concern for the individual at Ames Ford. I am always annoyed and frustrated when one of the "flock" forgets the sermon and creates another detractor for us. Determination grows with every frustration.

'Fractured Fling' Is One Of Best

By THERON A. NEWELL

"The Fractured Fling," fall presentation of the Novato Community Club Saturday night proved to be the fastest moving, most comical of the "flings" seen in several years by capacity crowds.

It will be repeated at the community center Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m.

"The world of politics" spoofed the national and international scene of J F K, Jackie, De Gaulle with "a cultural evening at the White House."

One of the highlights was the "Black Point chamber music quartet," which could be seen only, not heard amid the din of the laughter. Mrs. Jane McLaren, Dr. Leo Wagner, Alex Consagra and Don Leaf were members of the quartet.

Male dancers in "The Dance of the Sugar Plam Fairy," Don Leaf, Paul Terry, Dr. James Cermak, and Dr. George McDaniel, also got roars of laughter as they performed in pink tights.

Don Barkley, Curly Whisenhunt and Bob Comaduran Jr. portrayed Castro, Khrushchev and Mao in a scene of "international friendship."

The "wonderful world of suburbia" was lampooned during the second act. Vivienne Terry's rendition of "woman" brought some of the loudest applause and an encore.

New voices that were show stoppers were those of police officer Otto Haiungs singing "Hey Look Me Over," and Carol Martinucci singing "Why Was I Born?"

In a barbecue scene, Bob Comanduran Jr's. version of a drunken male strip teaser provided a riot both on the stage and in audience, as the crowd stomped and whistled for more.

The third act spoofed "the whacky world of entertainment," being a series of takeoffs on television commercials and stage and screen acts.

Saundie Brown's rendition of "I'm getting married in the morning," was well appreciated. "The 12 office visits," a parody on the Christmas carol "The 12 days of Christmas," was cleverly done by Vivienne Terry.

The opening chorus and finale of "Oh Novato," done by the entire cast to the tune of "California Here We Come," gave a good start and finish to the show.

The "fling" was produced by Alex Consagra with Shirley Lane as assistant director. De Lone Kone was musical director, with Wanda Blackwell as choreographer. Lorraine Grozier was pianist, with Bob Anderson on the drums.

The story was written by Shari Leaf, Chris Kollgaard, and Sally Geser.

It was the first time the presidential family worshipped together at public church services.

Breath Droplets May Be Source Of Air Pollution

PASADENA (UPI) — The process of breathing may be a potential source of air pollution, according to a California Institute of Technology physicist.

Dr. Alexander Goetz told today of research work that has led to the discovery of "aerosols" in charcoal-filtered, supposedly smog-free hospital rooms occupied by asthma and emphysema patients.

Goetz said it was determined that many of the particles originated from patients — presumably from their breath. And he said it was suspected that such exhaled organic material—which is re-inhaled repeatedly by the patients—is a source of irritation, especially to persons with respiratory troubles.

"We don't know the nature of this patient-created air pollution," Goetz said. "It is not merely moisture droplets. If it were, it would completely evaporate. But it doesn't."

SAFEWAY

For more than two years, the Editors of LIFE have had their top echelon of artists, writers, researchers, and designers at work on this most exceptional work about Christmas. "The LIFE Book of Christmas" is unlike anything you have ever seen.

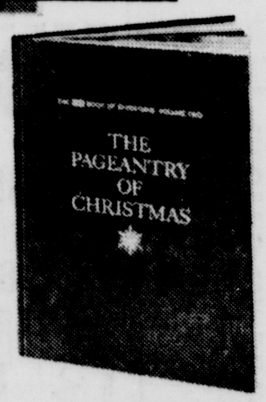

You will see the story of Christmas retold through great religious paintings of the ages; see dozens of finely etched steel and wood engravings of picturesque Christmas scenes. Most of the art and photographs are in vivid full color.

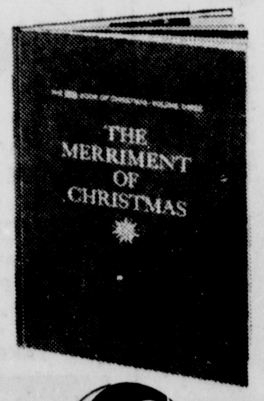

Each of the three volumes of "The LIFE Book of Christmas" is large. Pages are 9 x 12 inches. Each volume contains more than 100 pages, printed on fine papers to make pictures and text a joy to see and read. Bindings are in rich colors; titles are in gold to give each book a look and feel of elegance.

UNPRECEDENTED GIFT FOR FAMILY AND FRIENDS

Imagine giving all of the following – and much, much more – in one Christmas package:

A re-creation of the Holy Land in the time of the Caesars . . . The Christ story . . . Brand new ways to decorate your home . . . Handel's Messiah in illuminated manuscript . . . The fun of contemporary Christmas customs around the world . . . Stories from Tolstoy, Virginia Woolf, Walter Scott and many others . . . A selection of great Christmas poetry . . . The Twelve Days of Christmas illustrated in full color . . . A pictorial history of Christmas cards . . . Splendid Christmas entertainment every family can enjoy . . . Paintings by the great masters of religious art . . . The wonderful Christmas games of children . . . The story of The Star of Bethlehem . . . The crèche tradition . . . The life of Christ in a magnificent set of paintings by Giotto.

VOLUME ONE—The Glory of Christmas
The story of Christ's birth as told in the King James Bible and as elaborated upon by centuries of devout painters, sculptors, stained glass artists, writers and poets. Should heighten your appreciation of and participation in Christmas by shedding new light on how the simple story has been embroidered and lovingly interpreted.

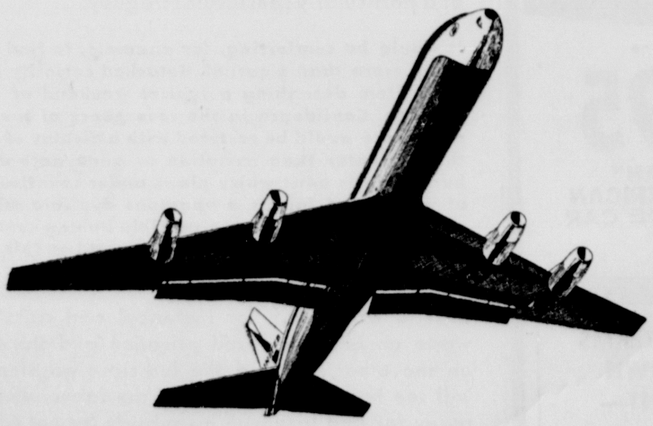

VOL. TWO—The Pageantry of Christmas
Traces development of our Christmas traditions and customs. Follows religious and secular celebrations through the centuries. Introduction of the yule log, the boar's head. Art chosen to illustrate each chapter was done in the era the chapter talks about.

VOL. THREE—The Merriment of Christmas
The fun of Christmas, with the focus on the family. Practical ways to decorate tree, house and table. How to prepare Christmas dinner. How to amuse the children. Traditional and contemporary adaptations for your own Christmas celebration.

Settle down and forget the trouble of house-hunting and the worries of this materialistic era. Your panacea may well be this large family home that has had loving care throughout its 8 beginning years. It's not TAHITI, but children loved it here. They grew up, however, leaving too many of the FOUR bedrooms vacant. In-laws also appreciated living here because they had their own bath, the THIRD, and a living room of their own with the 2nd fireplace. No problems to bother you here as everything is beautifully maintained and the landscaping has been painstakingly nurtured to maturity. A grove of birch sets off the contemporary exterior, inviting you to enjoy the provincial warmth inside provided by brick, beams and satin finished paneling. End your search for a better way of life. HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

True Tongue-Tie In Youngsters Is Really Very Rare Condition

True tongue-tie is rare yet many physicians are consulted by parents of toddlers who believe the condition exists and that the band beneath the tongue should be snipped. Mothers of youngsters under 2 fear the child's speech will be faulty unless this is done. The same idea prevails when Johnny is 3 or 4 and is slow to talk or fails to speak distinctly. These ideas have been handed down from the past.

VAN DELLEN

By definition, tongue-tie is a condition in which the tip of the tongue cannot be protruded beyond the lower incisor teeth. When protrusion is attempted, the end of the tongue becomes notched as it is held back by a short band of tissue (frenulum) under the tongue. In true tongue-tie the frenulum is absent at birth and contains scar tissue. This abnormality may interfere with the pronunciation of some consonants and with the playing of wind instruments.

BUT MANY of the young children mentioned previously do not have the disorder even though they cannot stick out the tongue beyond the lips. Spontaneous cure occurs when the tongue is used more frequently in normal speech. An otherwise healthy, intelligent boy or girl with persistent tongue-tie is most unusual.

On the other hand, when a speech defect persists after age 4, the cause may be traced to weak, incomplete, or uncoordinated tongue movements. These children may have cerebral palsy or congenital brain defects, including mental retardation.

HERE THE frenulum may be snipped when it appears to be too short because it does not move properly. But surgery does not improve the condition because something is wrong with the speech mechanism. Children with an underdeveloped lower jaw and those who stammer may go through a similar ordeal. The modern physician is aware of these pitfalls and seldom recommends surgery unless these other possibilities are considered first.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelops accompanies request.)

ENTIRELY DIFFERENT

Mrs. K. writes: My 16-year-old daughter has a heart murmur. Her father died of coronary thrombosis. Is there a relationship between these two disorders?

REPLY

No. Coronary thrombosis is commoner after age 50 and is caused by hardening of the coronary arteries. Your daughter's murmur may be due to a congenital defect of the heart or to a scarred valve. It also may be a harmless sound and not a sign of cardiac disease.

THRUSH

M. H. writes: I have what the doctor calls a monilial infection in my tongue, throat and chest. Is this a form of allergy?

REPLY

No — a fungal infection called thrush. It favors infants and debilitated oldsters. Good oral hygiene is helpful in clearing up this condition.

HYPOTENSION

M. O. writes: Is a blood pressure of 100 in a man considered dangerously low?

REPLY

No, if you refer to the systolic pressure, and the man otherwise is healthy. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on hypotension.

RUNNING EAR

L. H. writes: Could a bad head cold cause a watery secretion from the ears?

REPLY

Yes, provided there were openings in both eardrums as a result of previous infection or blockage of the eustachian tubes. This would be most unlikely.

EXERCISE INVIGORATES

L. S. writes: Is there any way to overcome weakness, lack of pep, and stiff joints in a 50-year-old? Vitamins, tranquilizers, and sedatives have not helped.

REPLY

Moderate daily exercise is a good remedy for these conditions.

Today's Health Hint — Lack of sleep drains your physical and emotional reserves.

Change-Over In Africa 'To Be Slow'

Peter Barrett, a representative of the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland, told 150 students at College of Marin yesterday that the transition of power from the white to the native population must be gradual.

"We are not trying to resist the wind of change, only temper it," Barrett said. A counselor to the federation, Barrett came from Washington, D.C. to the West Coast to speak Thursday to an African student conference in San Francisco.

He spoke at College of Marin yesterday at the invitation of the Mariner Discussion Committee.

Barrett denied that members of the white population of Rhodesia are racists. In Southern Rhodesia, which he talked of most, one-fourth of the government budget is spent on education of the native population. This still is not enough, he said.

The native population is backward. "We admit that it might be our own fault that they are backward," he said.

The government policy is to bring the two races together, "but as you here know, this is often by no means easy."

Barrett said Southern Rhodesia had developed a sophisticated economy and culture. To turn control of this over to the native population now would bring disaster and ruin, both for those giving up control and those receiving it, he contended.

Barrett said suffrage is given on the basis of education and wealth, following a complicated formula. It is not a matter of race, but as a practical matter most of the white population has the vote while most of the native population does not.

However, most of the 100,000 natives who have the vote boycotted the polls at the last election, thus missing a chance to control key seats that would have decided close issues between the two parties, he said.

In reply to a question, Barrett said he saw little or no chance of Rhodesia joining South Africa because the two countries are too far apart on the issue of race.

"We have already gone too far toward integration to join South Africa," he said.

On Dec. 31 the federation will be dissolved, with Nyasaland and Northern Rhodesia remaining as British colonies and Southern Rhodesia getting its independence. The native population has resisted independence because the white population has control, he said.

Chris Cason, a representative of the Inter-Club Council at the college, introduced Barrett and fielded questions. Barrett and his wife are staying in Marin until Monday, guests of Ian K. McDougall of Sausalito.

Man Acquitted In Attack Trial

A Marin County Superior Court jury yesterday acquitted John B. Castillo of charges of rape and sex perversion.

The 43-year-old Castillo, an Oakland businessman, remained in custody, however. Monterey County wants to question him over alleged failure to support his family.

He broke into tears yesterday when he heard the verdict on each of the counts at the end of the four day trial before Judge N. Charles Brusatori.

Castillo was accused of assaulting a 50-year-old Oakland woman May 25 on the Point Reyes Peninsula. The woman claimed he beat her and bit her, but the defendant said her bruises were caused by a fall into a ravine.

Winslow, a member of the committee since 1959, represented District 3, and served as chairman from 1960-62.

The committee, which accepted his resignation Thursday, will elect a successor from the third supervisorial district.

The committee also announced that James Tufts of Kentfield has been named precinct chairman, succeeding Mrs. Lee Sherry, state GOP vice chairman. Tufts, an associate member of the committee, is a director of the Marin Republican Council.

The central committee is planning a dollar drive under direction of Mrs. Betty Ross of Kentfield.

A separate charge of battery was dropped. Guaraldi did not appear, but his attorney agreed that the fine would be paid by Tuesday.

The pianist was accused of throwing a drink at a woman and cursing her in the Trident Bar, where Guaraldi was performing.

WING ON PARADE—One year ago Monday, the 349th Troop Carrier Wing received a sudden call to active Air Force duty because of the crisis in Cuba. Here are the men of the wing in parade formation in front of their C-119 Flying Boxcars for inspection by Brig. Gen. Rollin B. Moore, wing commander, on the flight line at Hamilton Air Force Base.

A DAY TO REMEMBER

One Year Ago, Crisis Called Marin Reservists

By THERON A. NEWELL

Oct. 28, 1962, dawned bright and clear in the Bay Area—an Indian summer Sunday.

For most Marinites, it was a day to enjoy—warm enough for fishing, boating, driving in the country, or working around the yard.

There were headlines in the morning papers and news bulletins on the radio about the crisis in Cuba—a crisis that had been developing since it became known that Russian nuclear weapons were being placed on the island, with Russian technicians to show the Cubans how to use them. There were bellicose announcements, as usual, from Cuban leader Fidel Castro, whose "hate the United States" campaign had been gathering a stronger head of steam.

Most Bay Area residents were little alarmed by the news. But even before dawn, it began making a very personal impression on a large assortment of men — members of the 349th Troop Carrier Wing, or Golden Gate Wing, a reserve Air Force unit.

At 3 a.m., wing headquarters at Hamilton Air Force Base received word from Continental Air Command headquarters that the 349th was being called to active duty.

Wing members up early for fishing trips received telephone calls to report at the base, and quickly cancelled their excursions. Others were awakened from sleep. As the morning wore on, still others were called back from trips already started.

Men from all walks of life suddenly were called away from their civilian roles. These included students at college, day workers, businessmen, professional men, and even one candidate for the State Assembly, Robert D. Carrow of Novato.

On that date, the assigned strength of the wing was 1,965 men. Within 24 hours, 1,797 of these men had reported for duty.

"We felt that this was exceptionally good because many of the men were in vacation areas where they could not be reached," said Brig. Gen. Rollin B. Moore, Jr., wing commander.

The headquarters building at Hamilton Air Force Base soon contained a mass of milling men wondering what to do and where to go.

Yet out of this seeming chaos, order was resolved and the wing became functional.

"Looking back at the Cuban incident, it can be said that our men responded extremely well," said General Moore.

Housing was one of the main problems for the men who lived some distance from Hamilton. The wing had three barracks on the base which were immediately filled. Marin County had but little housing to offer the men on such short notice, according to Moore.

Altogether, the first few hours of being called back to active duty were the most hectic that members of the wing could remember.

"Everything considered, we learned a great deal from the call-up and our period of active duty," General Moore said.

Soon the daily training for the job filled each day. The men gradually grew accustomed to the routine. As suddenly as it was announced, the deactivation from regular duty came on Nov. 30, and the men were returned to civilian life.

The training the men received during that period has made itself shown in the wing's record in the past year, according to Moore.

The wing received the Air Force flying safety award for the year.

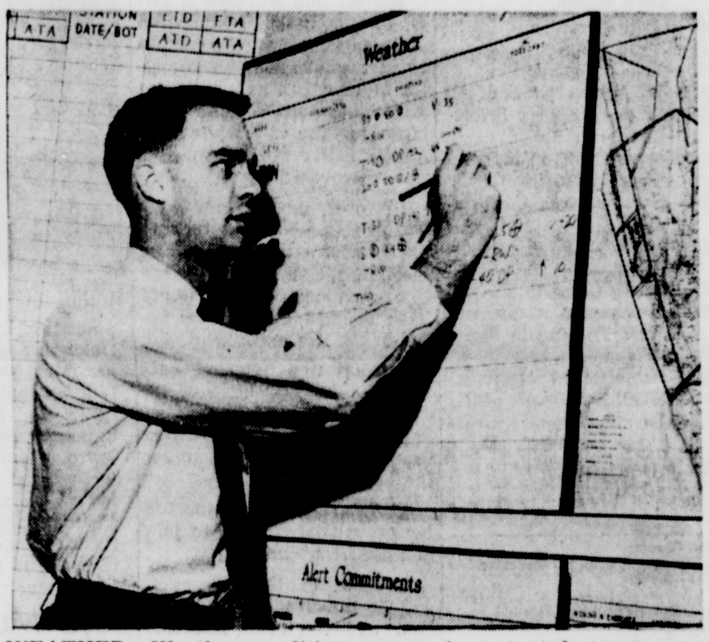

In addition, during the operational readiness inspection, which gave the Wing a complete evaluation based on active duty standards, it was found to be satisfactory.

At the troop carrier wing competitions in August in Clinton County, Ohio, the reserve Golden Gate Wing came in fifth place among all wings.

It was the only reserve wing which was allowed to participate in the Silver Fox exercise which was held in September and October in Elmendorf Air Force Base, Alaska.

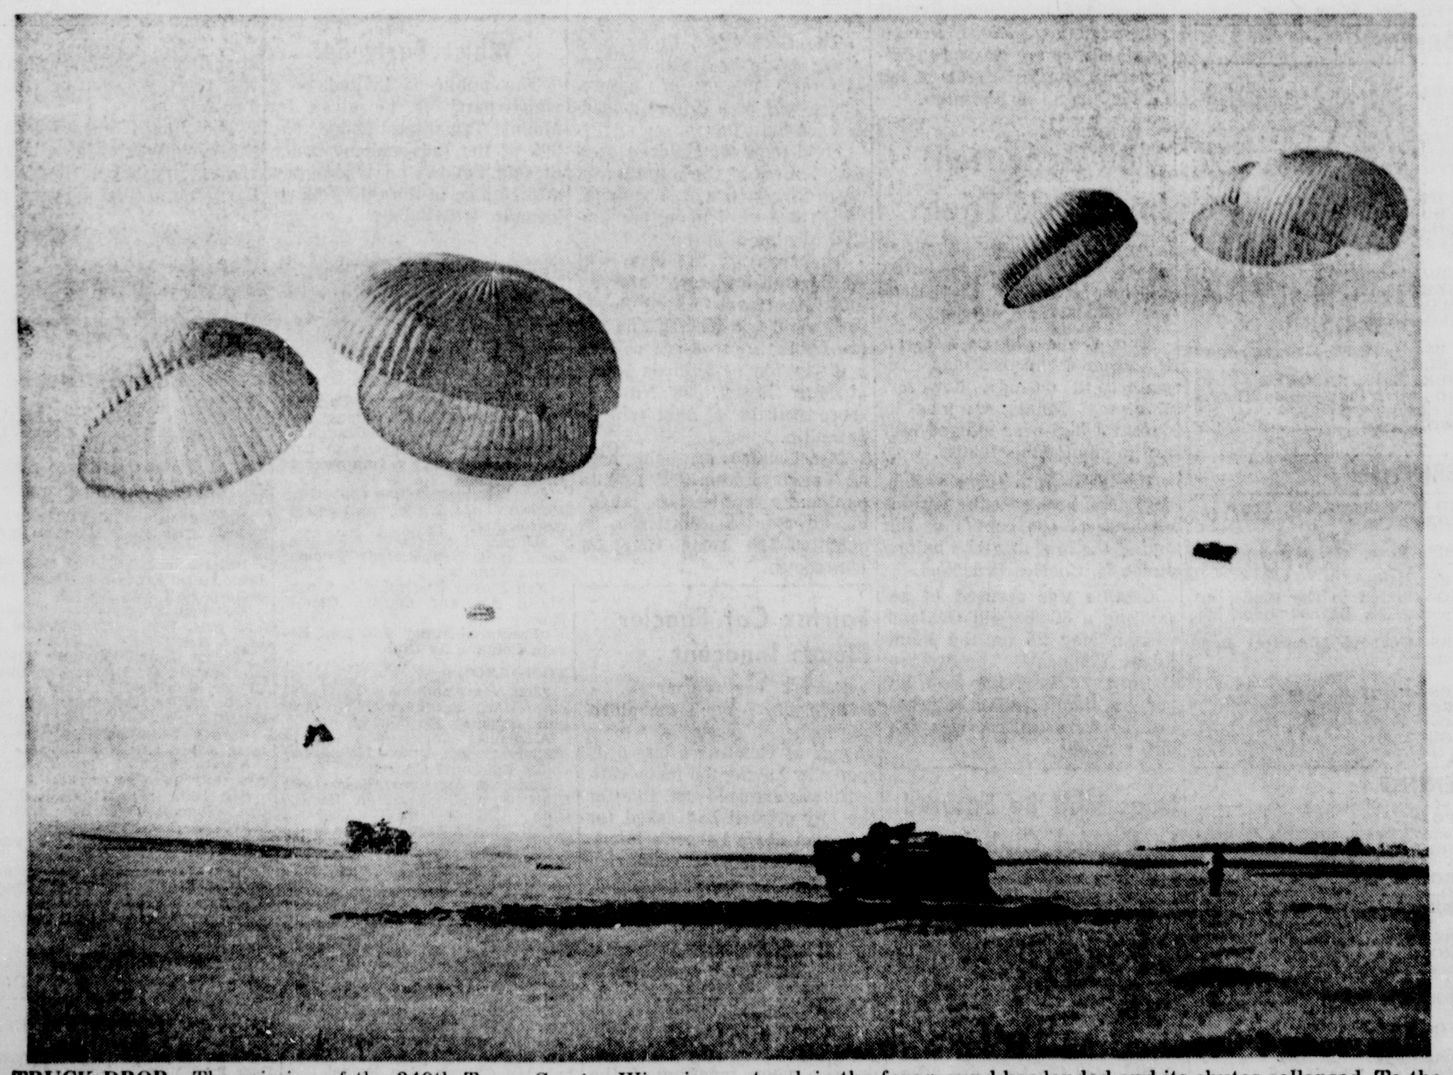

PARACHUTES—The lifelines of any troop or supply drop are the parachutes. Inspecting parachutes during the reactivation last year are A/2c Graham McPhail of 30 Wildwood Way, San Rafael (right), a student at Chico State College and personal equipment specialist in the military, and S/Sgt. Americo Casci of 16 Santa Barbara Avenue, San Anselmo, an Air Reserve technician.

WEATHER—Weather conditions are an important factor to any flying unit. A/2c Leonard Perkins of 11 Chestnut Drive, San Rafael, is shown posting weather at the 349th Troop Carrier Wing Headquarters during the Cuban crisis call-up. In civilian life, Perkins is alloting supervisor for California Packing Corp.

PHYSICAL EXAMS—Whenever nearly 2,000 men are called up to active duty, as during the Cuban crisis when the 349th Troop Carrier Wing was activated last year, the medics work overtime in checking over the men. A/3c Kenneth P. Ewing of 100 Read, Mill Valley, a military medic, takes a blood sample from S/Sgt. David R. Wilson of 42 Loring Avenue, Mill Valley. In civilian life Ewing is an inspector with the Federal Food and Drug Administration and Wilson is a food service supervisor.

TRUCK DROP—The mission of the 349th Troop Carrier Wing is to deliver cargo and personnel quickly. Instead of making simulated drops, the wing teamed with the 101st Airborne Division. Here they make a drop of trucks at Beale Air Force Base. One truck in the foreground has landed and its chutes collapsed. To the left can be seen a truck the instant it hits the ground, breaking its connection with its three chutes, while a third is still floating down from the C-119 which dropped it.

WORLD SITUATION — T/Sgt. Joseph E. Mooney of 54 West Crescent Drive, San Rafael, an intelligence specialist with the 349th Wing, explains the Asian situation during a briefing at wing headquarters. In civilian life he is a sergeant in the Marin County sheriff's department. The wing, called for possible action in Cuba a year ago, may be called up any time the United States needs quick movement of troops and supplies to any troubled area.

WITH AN ELEPHANT as a backdrop, dancers glide over the floor. Guests entered the foyer of the Meadow Club under a tent of orange and yellow stripes. Two large circus wagons were also carried out in the decor.

Jerry Schendel Weds Carolyn McNamara In Kentfield Ceremony

St. Sebastian's Church in Kentfield was the setting for the Saturday morning nuptials of Carolyn McNamara and William Gerald Schendel Jr., the Rev. William Butler officiating.

Carolyn, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. McNamara of Kentfield, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of ivory satin styled with empire waist and straight skirt and rose velvet jacket.

Leslie Young of San Francisco was maid of honor for Carolyn, wearing a rose beige silk dress with bell shaped skirt and rose velvel jacket.

The bridegroom's sister, Caroline Schendel of San Rafael, was the bridesmaid, wearing a similar ensemble.

Best man for the bridegroom was Al Todaro of San Rafael and ushering was Tony Sousa of San Anselmo.

A reception followed at the Fairfax Women's Club.

The couple will like in Kentfield.

The bride was graduated from Marin Catholic High School and attended San Francisco State College and is employed in a physician's office in San Francisco. She is the sister of Kathleen and Teresa McNamara. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Mathew Broderick and the late Mr. Broderick of Salt Lake City, and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. McNamara of San Francisco.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Schendel of San Rafael.

He was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and the College of Marin and is a member of the Independent-Journal advertising staff. Mrs. Caroline Chokie of Rock Springs, Wyo. is his grandmother.

Madame's Tresses Created From Shaggy-Rug Material

A new synthetic wig for women started as a roll of Dynel fiber, 22 inches long and 54 inches wide.

The material looks like a shaggy rug. The cloth is cut into strips, using furriers knives. Individual strips are sewn together then — as a mink coat is sewn, to form a shape patterned to fit milady's head.

A piece of elastic is stitched inside, making the wig adjustable to fit every head size and enabling the wearer easily to tuck her own locks inside.

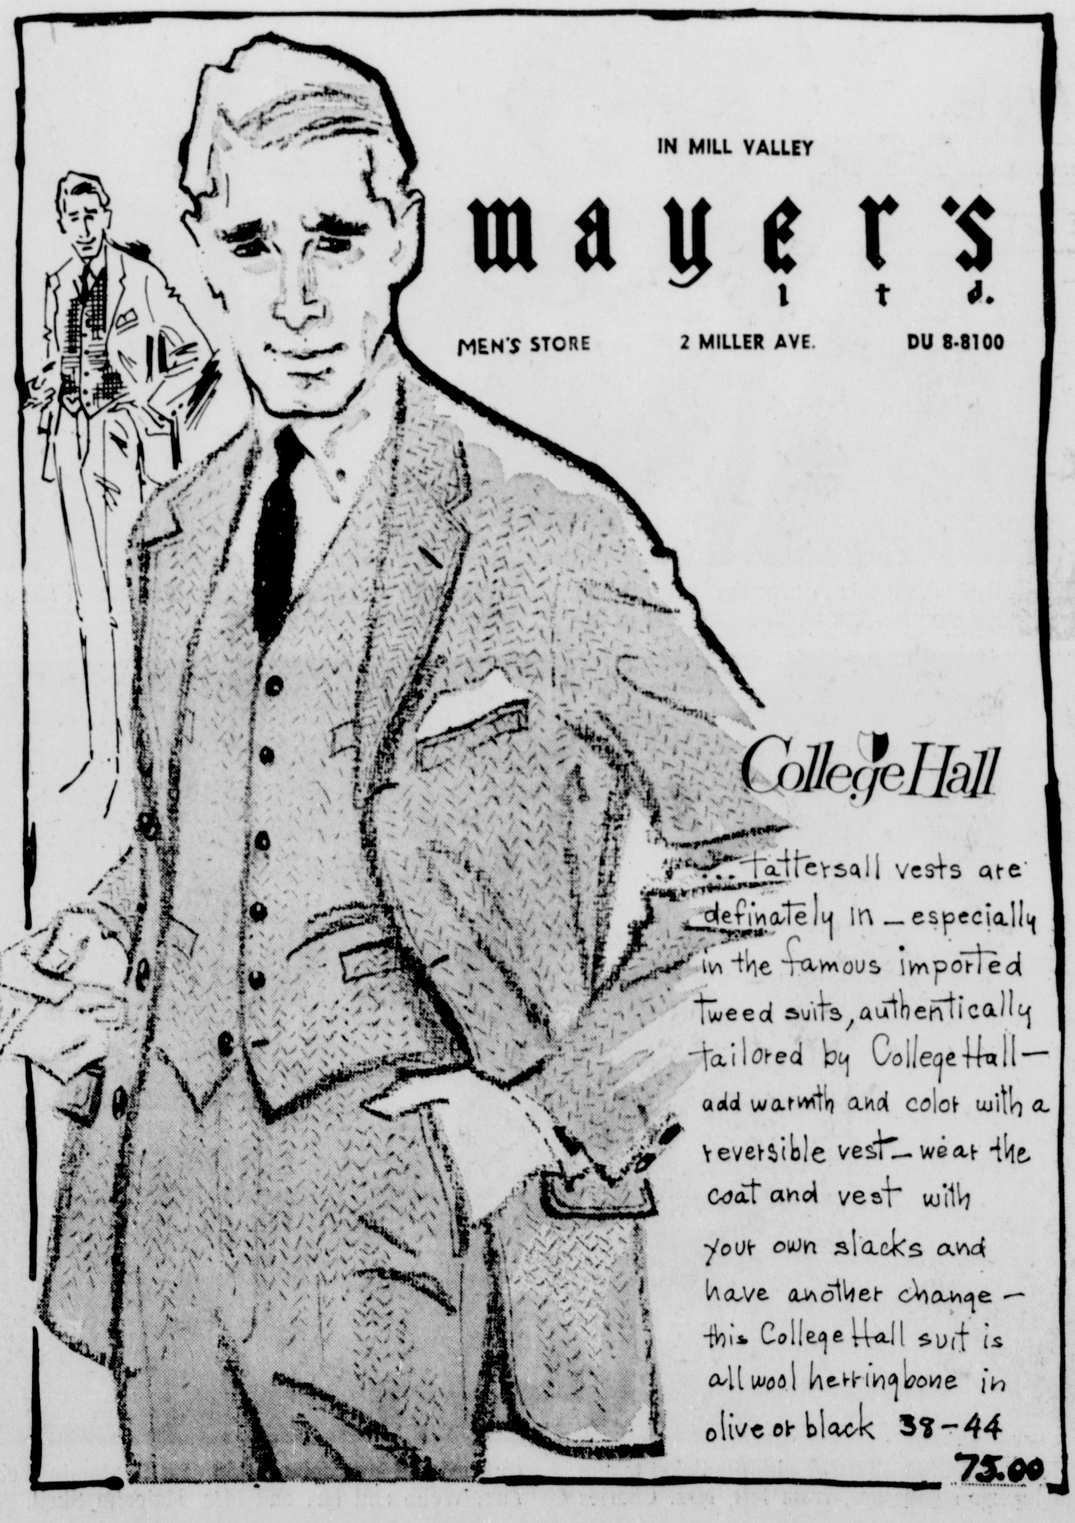

The wig, which is washable, gets its shape this way: it's put on a wig block. The next steps: brush, comb and lacquer it into a variety of styles.

Phil Silvers made his Broadway debut at age 14 in the late Gus Edwards' "School Days Revue" at the Palace Theater.

THE SAMPLE SHOPPE IS GONE!

For six years the little "Sample Shoppe" on Grand Avenue (between Third and Fourth Streets) was operated by Bill and Kay Belfor. In April the Belfors moved to the spot formerly occupied by Sherman-Clay in the same building, and opened "Michelle Craig," featuring dresses and sportswear for the country set, and "coffee and browsing" time from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. To the delight of the Belfors, Michelle Craig has been as warmly accepted as was The Sample Shoppe. Now, a new permanent "Sale" department has been added into which go dresses and sportswear at savings of ¼ to ½, to keep the stock "moving." Since the Belfors still operate "The Sample Shoppe" at 2070 Union Street in San Francisco, there will also be included in this department from time to time salesmen's samples.

1.3 Miles to Town From Racquet Club Estates

Living "close in" is a great time and "mommy saver" . . . cuts down running back and forth, shortens shopping time, frees older children from dependence on the family car.

Sun Valley Grammar School . . . just 2 short blocks away . . . a United Market is at the foot of the hill on Miracle Mile . . . San Rafael public library, less than a mile.

Maybe this is an odd "pitch" to sell a house, but convenience must be present as well as excellence of design and materials, spectacular view and good financing.

We have 'em all.

Visit our beautiful model home completely furnished by House of Karlson, at 56 Longwood Drive.

Open Daily, 10 to Dusk

Only three homes left of this group in a "super desirable" Racquet Club location. It's the crest of a hill overlooking the swim and tennis club just a short block below. Native trees enhance the view of Mt. Tam to the west, or eastward across San Rafael to distant Mt. Diablo.

NEW, NEW SERIES OF HOMES ARE NOW GOING INTO CONSTRUCTION . . . AT THE $30,000 PRICE LEVEL. ASK OUR SALESMAN TO SHOW YOU THE PLANS.

Councilmen Face 42 Items In San Rafael

San Rafael city councilmen will face a 42-item agenda when they meet at 8 p.m. today in the city hall for the first meeting in three weeks.

Another discussion of sale of the city hall property and six bid openings are among headline items.

The city's drive to get utility lines underground is scheduled to move ahead on three fronts: consideration of an ordinance on undergrounding utilities in new subdivisions, introduction of an ordinance for removal of the poles on Third Street running east from Union Street, and a Pacific Gas and Electric Co. proposal for underground service on A Street.

Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa will present his appointments for police lieutenant and sergeant for council approval.

The council will consider a letter from A. E. Bagshaw, attorney for the Independent-Journal, on alternate methods for sale of the city hall property proposed several weeks ago.

Bids are to be opened on slide correction on Upper Fremont Avenue, demolition of a building on city property at 100 Shaver Street, traffic signal installation at Third and D streets, and a sedan for the fire department. Also, bids will be opened on purchase of city property at Mission Avenue and Union Street, and at Alice Street.

The Engineers and Grading Contractors Assn. will be heard in opposition to the city's new truck route ordinance. Zoning of Terra Linda Unit 20, now unclassified, for 70 lots of a minimum of 10,000 square feet, recommended by the planning commission, will be up for vote. Numerous subdivision matters are also on the agenda.

Judges for the show will be Ann O'Hanlon, Mill Valley painter and former are director at Dominican College; Dr. Alfred Neumeyer, professor of art history at Mills College, and James Monte, review editor of the San Francisco publication, Artforum.

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

By HARRY CRAFT

Harold King, Kentfield, Celebrates 35 Years With Wells Fargo Bank

Celebrating his completion of 35 years in the banking business today is Harold G. King of Kentfield. He has spent them all with the Wells Fargo Bank, of which he is now vice president and senior trust officer. A graduate of Stanford University, King joined the bank in 1928. He has been an officer since 1941, was promoted to vice president in 1952 and made senior trust officer three years ago.

Smith King

King serves on the executive committee of the California Bankers Assn. trust division, and on the committee on statistics of the American Bankers Assn. trust division. He is a member of the California State Bar.

AMONG junior staff members of Wells Fargo, Donald C. Smith of Tiburon has been promoted to loan officer at the Mill Valley branch. He joined the bank in 1960 and has been in the credit and loan department during that time.

MARIN SHOE MERCHANTS, returned from the recent spring showing of the West Coast Shoe Travelers Assn. in Los Angeles, report a number of new style trends. Among those especially noted were more pastel colors in children's dress shoes, open-toe and sandal wear for women and such colors as "white lightning," "nude" and "rajah red" in patent leathers. Men's footwear continues in the trend of softer and lighter shoes, but several brogue styles are pronounced.

Marin stores recorded as represented at the show were Chapman's, D'Alden's, Herbert's, Kramar's, McKenzie's and Netboy's.

HERMAN E. FRENTZEL, a San Anselmo consulting engineer, has opened offices at 618 Sacramento Street, San Francisco. The firm, designated as Frentzel Engineering, engages in special machinery and systems design and development, product design and plant layout, drawing and specification preparation, construction and erection supervision and general engineering.

THERE WAS a drop in Marin building activity during September from August totals and also from Sept., 1962. But cumulative totals for the three quarters completed in 1963 are still ahead of last year, according to Marin County Development Assn. figures.

As usual, residential far outweighed commercial building, and the former was divided into home and multiple units at 52 and 48 per cent respectively. Heaviest construction was in San Rafael and Novato.

EICHLER HOMES, INC. has had its application for listing on the Pacific Coast Stock Exchange accepted. Trading is expected to commence this week. Eichler shareowners received a quarterly cash dividend of 12.5 cents per share this month. In addition, 2 per cent stock dividends have been distributed in each of the last three years.

The name Angola was given to Portuguese West Africa in honor of King N'gola who invited the explorer Paulo Dias de Novais to settle there in 1575.

is America tops in talent?

America has to be tops! It takes top talent to maintain our world lead in science and business, in jobs and living standards . . . in moral influence.

Where does this talent come from? Higher education supplies most of it. But costs have crept higher . . . the colleges are battling to keep up.

To stay on top, we must back our colleges. They need classrooms, laboratories and competent teachers.

HELP THE COLLEGE OF YOUR CHOICE NOW!

Master Plan For Ranch On Agenda

A public hearing to develop a master plan for the 250-acre Pimentel Ranch in west Novato will be held before the Marin County Planning Commission on Nov. 4.

The commission meeting, on the third floor of the Civic Center, will start at 9 a.m. and continue through the day. The Pimentel Ranch item is No. 11 on the agenda. A second public hearing on the master plan is set for Nov. 18.

The Pimentel Ranch is open land south of Vineyard Road and west of Trumbull Road, about two and one-fourth miles from Highway 101. The proposal is to plan the area for residences on lots of 10,000 square feet to one acre, some garden apartments, a shopping center area, a school site, and open spaces for recreation.

Also on Nov. 4, the county planning commission will consider the tentative map of the gardens at Ignacio. This is an area just under four acres, south of Bel Marin Boulevard. Twenty condominium apartment lots are planned there.

Marinero residence No. 1 will ask for rezoning in Tiburon from single family residential to apartment zoning for a small parcel at Lyford Drive and Vistazo West.
